State Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(b)

Enactment of this legislation could reduce dedicated credit collections to the Department of Human Services - Division of Child and Family Services by $32,000 ongoing beginning in FY 2019, which are used for out-of-home services for children in state custody. This reduction is from the Department of Human Services - Office of Recovery Services waiving child support obligations annually for approximately 30 individuals whose only source of income is certain government cash assistance programs.

Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable costs for local governments.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Approximately 30 individuals who are court-ordered to pay child support for their child or children in state custody, and whose only source of income is certain government cash assistance programs, could have their child support obligation waived annually. These individuals could collectively save $32,000 over a one-year period.

Regulatory Impact

Enactment of this legislation likely will not change the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
