UCA 36-12-13(2)(b)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not materially impact state revenue.

Revenues	FY 2018	FY 2019	FY 2020
Total Revenues	$0	$0	$0

Enactment of this legislation creates the Point of the Mountain State Land Authority. Meeting costs associated with the authority board could be estimated $2,700 in FY 2018 and then $9,600 annually, funded from the General Fund, assuming the board meets four times during a year. The Division of Facilities Construction and Management will provide staff for the board. The Division estimates this cost at approximately $1,000 and has indicated it can absorb the cost within its existing budget.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
