Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation could impact local governments who collect revenue from fees that would be waived under the proposed legislation. Total fiscal impact will vary from city to city; however, for Salt Lake City, enactment of this legislation could lead to an annual revenue loss of $317,000 from approximately 5,450 individuals who would be eligible for a fee waiver under the proposed legislation.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of the proposed legislation would increase the population eligible to apply for a fee waiver. In Salt Lake City, approximately 5,450 individuals will save an average fine of $58.

Regulatory Impact

Enactment of this legislation could result in a small increase in the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
