Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

This bill has no direct impact on retirement rates. Should local government employers opt to pay the 45% surcharge to hire an employee covered by the bill, and presuming the rehired wage is $65,000 for 150 individuals annually, then local governments may incur a cost of $4.4 million annually.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

For eligible public safety and firefighter professionals, this bill expands the options for reemployment following retirement. For an individual with an average final compensation of $65,000 and 30 years of service at age 55, and presuming the individual works an additional 5 years after retirement, this bill represents a potential increase in the present value of lifetime compensation of $66,000. An estimated 200 individuals may take advantage of the benefit.

Regulatory Impact

Enactment of this legislation could result in a small reduction in the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
