Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation may have a fiscal impact on counties that elect to change the process for selecting county officers or the structure of county offices. These costs could include the procedural costs for elections, public meetings and voter information pamphlet printing for transitioning from an elected to an appointed form of government. There may also be salary cost increases and decreases if a county consolidates or separates county offices.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct expenditures from tax or fee changes for Utah residents and businesses.

Regulatory Impact

UCA 36-12-13(2)(e)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not change the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
