Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation could result in cost changes for local governments due to the expenses related to physical infrastructure shifting between jurisdictions as they lose or gain property within their boundaries. The addition or loss of jurisdictions will also have a tax and fee revenue impact, both for the for political subdivision gaining property and for the subdivision losing property as well as the local districts involved.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Individuals and businesses located within withdrawn areas may experience changes in taxes and fees based on the rates set by their new jurisdiction.

Regulatory Impact

UCA 36-12-13(2)(e)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not change the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

Performance Note

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
