Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation could reduce the amount of initial and reciprocal food truck business license fees collected by political subdivisions to the actual cost of processing the business licenses. Municipalities may also see a reduction in permit fee revenues generated by food truck events.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation could reduce the amount of initial and reciprocal food truck business license fees paid by food truck operators to political subdivisions to the actual cost of processing the business licenses. This legislation could also reduce the amount of permit fees paid by food truck operators for food truck events held within political subdivisions.

Regulatory Impact

UCA 36-12-13(2)(e)

Enactment of this legislation could result in a small reduction in the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
