State Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(b)

Revenues	FY 2019	FY 2020	FY 2021
Total Revenues	$0	$0	$0

To the extent that lobbyists fail to timely complete the required harassment training course, the state could receive revenue of $1,000 per license suspension or $2,000 per revocation. To the extent that lobbyists are found to violate harassment policy, the state could receive a $2,000 administrative fine per case.

Expenditures	FY 2019	FY 2020	FY 2021
General Fund, One-Time	$300	$0	$0
Total Expenditures	$300	$0	$0

Enactment of this legislation could cost the Lt. Governor's Office $300 one-time from the General Fund in FY 2019 to design the harassment training course. The office has indicated it can absorb this cost.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
