State Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(b)

Revenues	FY 2019	FY 2020	FY 2021
Federal Funds	$0	$(262,500)	$(262,500)
Dedicated Credits	$0	$262,500	$262,500
Total Revenues	$0	$0	$0

Enactment of this legislation could increase dedicated credit revenues to the Office of Recovery Services by $262,500 ongoing beginning in FY 2020 from a higher annual fee for custodial parents who request child support enforcement services from the office. The office would draw down fewer federal funds by a corresponding amount.

Expenditures	FY 2019	FY 2020	FY 2021
Total Expenditures	$0	$0	$0

Enactment of this legislation likely will not materially impact state expenditures.

Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable costs for local governments.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation could increase the annual fee paid by approximately 27,000 custodial parents who request child support enforcement services from the Office of Recovery Services by $10 each. By raising the threshold for collections prior to the fee being assessed, this legislation could result in approximately 300 custodial parents no longer being required to pay a fee.

Regulatory Impact

UCA 36-12-13(2)(e)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not change the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
