Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

|   |
|---|
| Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable costs for local governments. |
|---|

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

|  |
|--|
| Enactment of this legislation could increase costs for utility companies and electric cooperatives for the implementation of plans; however, the legislation provides that such companies may adjust their rates to recoup implementation costs. Therefore, the legislation could result in increased utility rates for customers. |
|--|

Regulatory Impact

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

|   |
|---|
| Enactment of this legislation could result in a small increase in the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses. |
|---|

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
