State Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

| Revenues                              | FY 2020    | FY 2021          | FY 2022          |
|---------------------------------------|------------|------------------|------------------|
| Dedicated Credits Revenue             | $0        | $115,600        | $115,600        |
| New Account Created By Bill (FN Only) | $0        | $35,000         | $35,000         |
| Total Revenues                 | $0 | $150,600 | $150,600 |

Enactment of this legislation could generate $35,000 ongoing to the new Oil and Gas Administrative Penalties Account, and it could also increase dedicated credit revenue to the Office of the Attorney General's Internal Service Fund by $115,600 ongoing for legal services to the Division of Oil, Gas, and Mining, starting in FY 2021.

| Expenditures                           | FY 2020    | FY 2021          | FY 2022          |
|----------------------------------------|------------|------------------|------------------|
| Dedicated Credits Revenue              | $0        | $115,600        | $115,600        |

Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable costs for local governments.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation could cost business with violation up to $10,000 per violation per day, depending on the penalties the Board of Oil, Gas, and Mining would assess, based on the severity of the violations and the number of days in violation. The total estimated annual impact on the violators is $35,000.

Regulatory Impact

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation could result in a small increase in the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

Performance Note

JR4-2-404

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
