Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Local health departments, municipalities, and counties could have an unknown number of tobacco retailers in their jurisdictions remain open. Local health departments would realize a per-retailer permit renewal fee of $20 and associated administrative and enforcement costs of an unknown amount; municipalities and counties would realize business license fees and associated administrative costs of an unknown amount.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Certain tobacco retailers could remain open for one to two more years. These tobacco retailers would be required to pay a $20 permit renewal fee to the local health department and a business license fee of an unknown amount to the appropriate municipality or county. The total number of tobacco retailers impacted is not known.

Regulatory Impact

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation could result in a medium reduction in the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
