Revenues	FY 2021	FY 2022	FY 2023
Dedicated Credits Revenue	$0	$74,100	$74,100
Total Revenues	$0	$74,100	$74,100

Enactment of this legislation could decrease revenues from Dedicated Credits to the Department of Agriculture and Food by $2,300 ongoing beginning in FY 2022 for reduced permits issued for Manufacturers of Quilted Clothing. This legislation could increase Dedicated Credit revenues to the Department by $14,400 ongoing beginning in FY 2022 for reimbursed costs of enforcing the Bedding, Upholstered Furniture, and Quilted Clothing Inspection Act. Finally, enactment of this bill could increase dedicated credit revenue to the Department by at least $62,000 ongoing beginning in FY 2022 from reimbursements of enforcing animal quarantines.

Expenditures	FY 2021	FY 2022	FY 2023
Dedicated Credits Revenue	$0	$86,600	$86,600
Total Expenditures	$0	$86,600	$86,600

Enactment of this legislation could cost the Department of Agriculture and Food's Regulatory Services Division $1,400 from Dedicated Credits for increased inspection time of recycled material labeling. This legislation may cost the Department's Brand Inspection Program $10,000 from Dedicated Credits for inspector training to identify infectious disease, which the department has indicated they can absorb. Enactment of this bill could also cost the Brand Inspection Program, at a minimum, $62,000 to enforce animal quarantines, which could include road blockades, door-to-door searches and other activities. Finally, this bill may reduce expenditures for the Department by $6,000 every 5 years from sending electronic brand renewal notices.

Performance Note

JR4-2-404

No performance note required for this bill

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
