

Performance Note
SB0163 - Campus Safety
Amendments
Sponsor: Sen. Iwamoto, Jani

Performance Note Report

Author: Jordan Passey

Agency: Utah Board of Higher Education

Funding For:

New Services or Benefit

Public Benefit:

Purpose: The purpose is to update outdated statute related to the selection and hiring of campus law enforcement, clarify required reporting of specific incidents related to campus safety, and establishes a student-led commission on safety and equity.

Services: Work of the commission that may include recommendations to the Utah Board of Higher Education on issues related to students safety and equity.

Expected Outcome: Increased state-level visibility and awareness of student safety and equity issues to better inform actions and potential policies of the Utah Board of Higher Education.

Implementations and Resources: Staff time.

How: Increased state-level visibility and awareness of student safety and equity issues to better inform actions and potential policies of the Utah Board of Higher Education.

Performance Measures

Goal

Title: Increased state-level visibility and awareness of student safety and equity issues to better inform actions and potential policies of the Utah Board of Higher Education

Description: The Commission will coordinate its work product including agendas, position papers, and any recommendations with the Commissioner of Higher Education. The Commissioner will share any relevant information and recommendations with the Utah Board of Higher Education for further consideration.

Collection Method: The Commission will coordinate its work product including agendas, position papers, and any recommendations with the Commissioner of Higher Education. The Commissioner will share any relevant information and recommendations with the Utah Board of Higher Education for further consideration.

	2021	2022	2023
Target	0.00	0.00	0.00
Baseline	0.00	0.00	0.00

By rule, performance notes are provided by the governmental entity that will supervise the new agency or administer the new program. Performance notes are not written by the Office of the Legislative Fiscal Analyst.