Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable costs for local governments.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

An estimated 1,160,820 Utah individual income tax filers may see tax savings of $129 on average in tax year 2022. Enactment of an individual and corporate income tax rate cut to 4.85% will reduce tax liability for the majority of individuals and businesses beginning in tax year 2022. The increase in the income-based phaseout thresholds for the social security tax credit could result in an average annual tax savings of $210 for an estimated 71,257 individuals in tax year 2022. The nonrefundable state earned income tax credit may result in tax savings of $194 on average for an estimated 81,764 individuals in tax year 2022. Individual tax savings will vary based on filing status, family size, income, and other factors.

Regulatory Impact

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not change the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

Performance Evaluation

JR1-4-601

This bill does not create a new program or significantly expand an existing program.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
