Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation could cost local law enforcement agencies that hire public safety officers from other law enforcement agencies. It could also increase revenues for local law enforcement agencies that lose public safety officers to other offices. As it is unknown how many local law enforcement agencies perform this practice or have protections built into their hiring agreements that require officers to repay the time for training if they leave within a certain time frame, the exact costs and revenues to local law enforcement agencies is unknown.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct expenditures from tax or fee changes for Utah residents and businesses.

Regulatory Impact

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not change the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

Performance Evaluation

JR1-4-601

This bill does not create a new program or significantly expand an existing program.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
