Revenues	FY 2023	FY 2024	FY 2025
General Fund, One-time	$94,100	$0	$0
Total Revenues	$94,100	$0	$0

Enactment of this legislation would repeal the Canine Body Armor Restricted Account. The account has a balance of $94,100 which would become available for a one-time transfer to the General Fund.

Expenditures	FY 2023	FY 2024	FY 2025
Canine Body Armor Restricted Account (GFR)	$94,100	$0	$0
Total Expenditures	$94,100	$0	$0

Enactment of this legislation likely will not materially impact state expenditures. Although the Legislature has made appropriations from the Canine Body Armor Restricted Account to the Department of Public Safety, recent collections in the account have been minimal and historically the department lapses the spending authority at the end of each year.

The account has a balance of $94,100 which would become available for a one-time transfer to the General Fund.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
