Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of the sales tax exemption for sand, gravel rock aggregate, or cement products between entities that are related through 100% common ownership or control for construction of a public roadway is estimated to reduce local tax revenues by approximately $1.2 million in FY2024 and $1.3 million in FY2025.

Additionally, enactment of the rolling stock sales tax exemption could result in forgone future local sales tax revenue; the aggregate impact is unknown.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of the sales tax exemption for sand, gravel rock aggregate, or cement products between entities that are related through 100% common ownership or control for construction of a public roadway is estimated to reduce sales tax liability for these taxpayers by approximately $3.6 million in FY2024 and $4.0 million in FY2025.

Regulatory Impact

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not change the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

Performance Evaluation

JR1-4-601

This bill does not create a new program or significantly expand an existing program.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
