Local Government

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct, measurable costs for local governments. Enactment of this legislation may impact local government revenues to the extent that any current metro townships converted to a municipality choose to impose or levy any of the taxes available to municipalities; aggregate impacts unknown. Enactment of this legislation may also affect the B & C roads population calculation for counties of the first class, which could result in a relatively greater portion of B & C road funding in such a county being allocated to the unincorporated area, with a proportionately lower amount going to the cities elsewhere within the county.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not result in direct expenditures from tax or fee changes for Utah residents and businesses. Enactment of this bill may impact taxpayers within current metro townships that would be converted to municipalities, to the extent those localities choose to impose or levy any of the taxes available to municipalities; aggregate impacts unknown.

Regulatory Impact

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not change the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

This bill does not create a new program or significantly expand an existing program.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
