Local Government UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation could result in local governments initially foregoing a portion of their tax revenue as increment to First Home Investment Zones. This increment could be recouped by changes to the tax rate. The increment for a small zone could be approximately $600,000 per year while a larger zone increment could be approximately $6 million per year.

Individuals & Businesses

UCA 36-12-13(2)(c)

Enactment of this legislation could result in individuals and businesses in entities where First Home Investment Zones are created experiencing a tax shift as a result of incremental values being subtracted from taxable values. Aggregate amounts are unknown.

Regulatory Impact

UCA 36-12-13(2)(d)

Enactment of this legislation likely will not change the regulatory burden for Utah residents or businesses.

S.B. 268 2nd Sub. (Salmon)

This bill does not create a new program or significantly expand an existing program.

Notes on Notes

Fiscal notes estimate the direct costs or revenues of enacting a bill. The Legislature uses them to balance the budget. They do not measure a bill's benefits or non-fiscal impacts like opportunity costs, wait times, or inconvenience. A fiscal note is not an appropriation. The Legislature decides appropriations separately.
