Description:

HB 97 (2007 GS) Establishes a fund for the purpose of collecting voluntary contributions through motor vehicle registration check off. The Division of Motor Vehicles will collect the contributions and transfer them to the account. The Board of Parks and Recreation will distribute the funds to qualified organizations. The Board must only consider proposals for funds that: 1) protect access to public lands by motor vehicle and off-highway vehicle operators, and educate the public about the appropriate use of off-highway vehicles.

HB 410 (2008 GS) Requires that interest earnings in specified restricted accounts (this fund/account is listed in bill) be deposited into the General fund rather than the restricted account.

HB 63 (2008 GS) Recodified Title 63, impacting the section of code relating to this fund.

HB 330 (2011 GS) As to this fund, strikes language that the account is nonlapsing. The bill repeals provisions related to nonlapsing funds, accounts, and account balances to clarify the list of nonlapsing authority in Section 63J-1-602, and Sections 63J-1-602 through 602.5. Clarifies the funding sources for certain funds and accounts. Renames certain funds. Adds certain funds to the list of nonlapsing funds, accounts, and account balances where nonlapsing authority exists. Clarifies the amounts the Division of Finance shall deposit into certain funds and accounts. Repeals obsolete language, funds, and accounts.
