

Article IX
Congressional and Legislative Apportionment

Article IX, Section 1 [Dividing the state into districts.]

No later than the annual general session next following the Legislature's receipt of the results of an enumeration made by the authority of the United States, the Legislature shall divide the state into congressional, legislative, and other districts accordingly.

Article IX, Section 2 [Number of members of Legislature.]

The Senate shall consist of a membership not to exceed twenty-nine in number, and the number of representatives shall never be less than twice nor greater than three times the number of senators.
