

Article X, Section 9 [Public aid to church schools forbidden.]

Neither the state of Utah nor its political subdivisions may make any appropriation for the direct support of any school or educational institution controlled by any religious organization.