

16-15-107 Expiration of filing -- Notice.

- (1) A filing under this chapter shall be effective for a period of three years from the date of filing plus the notice period provided in Subsection (2).
- (2)
 - (a) If no new filing is made by or on behalf of the trust who made the original filing within three years of the date of filing, the division shall send a notice by regular mail, postage prepaid, to the address shown for the registered office in the filing indicating that it will expire 30 days after the division mailed the notice.
 - (b) If no new filing is made within 30 days after the date of the division mailing the notice, the business trust's registration expires.
- (3) If the registration of a business trust has expired or has been canceled for failure to maintain a registered agent, the business trust may not conduct business in this state until it has newly registered with the division under this chapter.
- (4) The division may charge a fee in accordance with Section 63J-1-504 for the renewal of a registration.
