

20A-8-403 Political parties -- Certification.

When this title requires that a registered political party certify information to the lieutenant governor, the registered political party has met that requirement if the information is signed by the registered political party's designated liaison or the registered political party's chair.

Enacted by Chapter 182, 1997 General Session