

23-21-2.2 Preparation of management plans -- Participation by interested persons and local and tribal governments -- Compatibility with local government plans and existing rights.

- (1) The division shall invite persons who may have an interest in how the land is managed to participate in the management planning process.
- (2) Those persons may include:
 - (a) persons who use, or may use, the land for:
 - (i) agriculture, mining, or other commercial pursuits;
 - (ii) hunting or fishing;
 - (iii) recreation; or
 - (iv) other uses;
 - (b) adjacent or nearby landowners or residents; or
 - (c) other interested parties.
- (3) The division shall invite local government officials to participate in the management planning process.
- (4) In preparing a management plan, the division shall seek to make land uses compatible with:
 - (a) local government general plans and zoning and land use ordinances; and
 - (b) existing rights of others within the area.
- (5)
 - (a) If the land is located within or adjacent to tribal lands, the division shall invite tribal government officials to participate in the management planning process.
 - (b) Participation by tribal officials in the development of management plans for lands owned by the division does not waive the tribe's sovereignty.
