

23-23-9 Agents -- Appointment -- Identification -- Refusal of entry by agent.

- (1) A landowner association may appoint cooperative wildlife management unit agents to protect private property of the cooperative wildlife management unit.
- (2) Each cooperative wildlife management unit agent shall wear or have in his or her possession a form of identification prescribed by the Wildlife Board which indicates he or she is a cooperative wildlife management unit agent.
- (3) A cooperative wildlife management unit agent may refuse entry into private lands within a cooperative wildlife management unit to any person, except an owner of land within the unit and his or her employees, who:
 - (a) does not have in his or her possession a cooperative wildlife management unit authorization or permit;
 - (b) endangers or has endangered human safety;
 - (c) damages or has damaged private property within a cooperative wildlife management unit; or
 - (d) fails or has failed to comply with reasonable rules of a landowner association.
- (4) In performing the functions described in this section, a cooperative wildlife management unit agent shall comply with the relevant laws of this state.
