- (4) Except as otherwise provided in this section, notwithstanding the voidability of a transfer or an obligation under this chapter, a good faith transferee or obligee is entitled, to the extent of the value given the debtor for the transfer or obligation, to:

 - (b) enforcement of a security interest in compliance with Title 70A, Chapter 9a, Uniform Commercial Code - Secured Transactions, other than acceptance of collateral in full or partial satisfaction of the obligation it secures.

 - (b) if made in the ordinary course of business or financial affairs of the debtor and the insider; or
 - (c) if made pursuant to a good-faith effort to rehabilitate the debtor and the transfer secured present value given for that purpose as well as an antecedent debt of the debtor.
- (7) A transfer is not voidable under Section 25-6-202 or Subsection 25-6-203(1) if:
 - (a) the transfer was made by the debtor:

 - (c) a transferee's receipt of payment from a debtor is not, and may not be used as, evidence that:
 - (i) the transferee did not act in good faith;
 - (ii) the goods, services, or other consideration were not provided by the merchant in the ordinary course of the merchant's business;
 - (iii) the transferee had actual knowledge that the transfer was made by the debtor with actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the debtor; or

(3) If the settlor of an irrevocable trust is also a beneficiary of the trust, and if the requirements of Subsection (5) are satisfied, a creditor of the settlor may not:

- (a) satisfy a claim or liability of the settlor in either law or equity out of the settlor's transfer to the trust or the settlor's beneficial interest in the trust;
- (b) force or require the trustee to make a distribution to the settlor, as beneficiary; or
- (c) require the trustee to pay any distribution directly to the creditor, or otherwise attach the distribution before it has been paid or delivered by the trustee to the settlor, as beneficiary.

Sec. 541(c)(2).
 - (e) The settlor may not have the ability under the trust instrument, without the consent of a person who has a substantial beneficial interest in the trust, which interest would be adversely affected by the exercise of the power held by the settlor:

 - (j) At the time the settlor transfers any assets to the trust, the settlor may not intend to hinder, delay, or defraud a known creditor by transferring the assets to the trust. A settlor's expressed intention to protect trust assets from the settlor's potential future creditors is not evidence of an intent to hinder, delay, or defraud a known creditor.
 - (k) Assets transferred to the trust may not be derived from unlawful activities.
 - (l) With respect to each transfer of assets to the trust, the settlor shall sign a sworn affidavit stating that at the time of the transfer of the assets to the trust:

 - (iv) there is no pending or threatened court action against the settlor, except for a court action identified by the settlor on an attachment to the affidavit;

- (v) the settlor is not involved in an administrative proceeding that is reasonably expected to have a material adverse effect on the financial condition of the settlor, except an administrative proceeding identified on an attachment to the affidavit;
 - (vi) at the time of the transfer of the assets to the trust, the settlor is not in default of a domestic support obligation;
 - (vii) the settlor does not contemplate filing for relief under the provisions of United States Code, Title 11, Bankruptcy; and

 - (b) If the trustee does not send the notice required under Subsection (5)(g), the court may authorize any person with a domestic support obligation against the settlor to whom notice was not sent to attach the distribution or future distributions, but the person may not:
 - (i) satisfy a claim or liability in either law or equity out of the settlor's transfer to the trust or the settlor's beneficial interest in the trust; or
 - (ii) force or require the trustee to make a distribution to the settlor, as beneficiary.
 - (c) If any requirement described in Subsections (5)(i) through (l) is not satisfied, the property transferred to the trust that does not satisfy the requirement may not have the benefit of the protections described in Subsection (3).
 - (d) If the requirement described in Subsection (5)(h) is not satisfied, the property transferred to the trust that does not satisfy the requirement does not have the benefit of the protections described in Subsection (3) with respect to any person with a domestic support obligation.
 - (e) A creditor of the settlor has the burden of proving that the requirement in Subsection (5)(i) or (j) is not satisfied by clear and convincing evidence.
- (7) The provisions of Subsection (3) may apply to a trust even if:
- (a) the settlor serves as a cotrustee or as an advisor to the trustee, except that the settlor may not determine whether a discretionary distribution will be made;
 - (b) the settlor participates in a determination regarding whether a discretionary distribution is made to the settlor by:
 - (i) requesting a distribution from the trust;
 - (ii) consulting with the trustees regarding whether a discretionary distribution will be made;
 - (iii) exercising a right to consent to or veto the distribution under a power described in Subsection (7)(e);
 - (iv) signing documentation in the settlor's capacity as a cotrustee that implements a distribution when the other trustees use discretionary power to independently authorize a distribution; or

- (c) the settlor has the authority under the terms of the trust instrument to appoint a nonsubordinate advisor or a trust protector who can remove and appoint trustees and who can direct, consent to, or disapprove distributions;
 - (d) the settlor has the power under the terms of the trust instrument to serve as an investment director or to appoint an investment director under Section 75-7-906;
 - (e) the trust instrument gives the settlor the power to consent to or veto a distribution from the trust;
 - (f) the trust instrument gives the settlor an inter vivos or a testamentary nongeneral power of appointment or similar power;

- (g) the trust instrument gives the settlor the right to receive the following types of distributions:

 - (iii) income or principal from a charitable remainder annuity trust or charitable remainder unitrust, as defined in 26 U.S.C. Sec. 664;

- (8) If a trust instrument contains the provisions described in Subsections (5)(b) through (g), the transfer restrictions prevent a creditor or other person from asserting any cause of action or claim for relief against a trustee of the trust or against others involved in the counseling, drafting, preparation, execution, or funding of the trust for conspiracy to commit fraudulent conveyance or another voidable transfer, aiding and abetting a fraudulent conveyance or another voidable transfer, participation in the trust transaction, or similar cause of action or claim for relief. For purposes of this subsection, counseling, drafting, preparation, execution, or funding of the trust includes the preparation and funding of a limited partnership, a limited liability company, or other entity if interests in the entity are subsequently transferred to the trust. The creditor and other person prevented from asserting a cause of action or claim for relief may assert a cause of action against, and are limited to recourse against, only:
 - (a) the trust and the trust assets; and
 - (b) the settlor, to the extent otherwise allowed in this section.
- (9)

 - (b) Except as provided in Subsection (9)(a), a cause of action or claim for relief under this section is not a cause of action or claim for relief under Sections 25-6-101 through 25-6-407.
 - (c) Notwithstanding Section 25-6-305, a cause of action or claim for relief regarding a fraudulent conveyance or other voidable transfer of a settlor's assets under this section is extinguished unless the action is brought by a creditor of the settlor who was a creditor of the settlor before the assets in question were transferred to the trust and the action is brought within the earlier of:
 - (i) the time the action is brought;
 - (ii) the time the assets are transferred to the trust;
 - (iii) the time the settlor dies;
 - (iv) the time the settlor's assets are transferred to the trust;
 - (v) the time the settlor's assets are transferred to the trust;

- (i) the later of two years after the transfer is made, or one year after the transfer is or reasonably could have been discovered by the creditor if the creditor:
 - (A) can demonstrate, by clear and convincing evidence, that the creditor asserted a specific claim against the settlor before the transfer; or
 - (B) files another action, other than an action alleging a fraudulent conveyance or other voidable transfer against the settlor that asserts a claim based on an act or omission of the settlor that occurred before the transfer, and the action described in Subsection (9)(c) is filed within two years after the transfer; or
- (ii)
 - (A) with respect to a creditor known to the settlor, 120 days after the date on which notice of the transfer is mailed to the creditor, which notice shall state the name and address of the settlor or the settlor's representative, the name and address of the trustee or the trustee's representative, and also describe the assets that were transferred, but does not need to state the value of those assets if the assets are other than cash, and which shall inform the creditor that the creditor is required to bring the creditor's cause of action or claim for relief against the settlor and the trustee within 120 days from the mailing of the notice or be forever barred; or
 - (B) with respect to a creditor not known to the settlor, 120 days after the date on which notice of the transfer is first published in a newspaper of general circulation in the county in which the settlor then resides, or is published on a public legal notice website as defined in Section 45-1-101, which notice shall state the name of the settlor or the settlor's representative, the address of the settlor or the settlor's representative, the name of the trustee or the trustee's representative, the address of the trustee or the trustee's representative, and also describe the assets that were transferred, but does not need to state the value of those assets.
- (10)
 - (a) The notice required in Subsection (9)(c)(ii)(B) shall be published in accordance with the provisions of Section 45-1-101 for three consecutive weeks and inform creditors that they are required to bring a cause of action or claim for relief within 120 days from the first publication of the notice or be forever barred.
 - (b) Failure to give the notice required in Subsection (9)(c)(ii) to a creditor does not prevent the shortening of the limitations period under Subsection (9)(c)(ii) with respect to another creditor who properly received notice by mail or publication.
- (11)
 - (a) A trust is subject to this section if it is governed by Utah law, as provided in Section 75-7-107, and if it otherwise meets the requirements of this section.

- (13) If a provision in this section conflicts with a provision in Sections 25-6-101 through 25-6-407, the provision of this section shall supersede the conflicting provision in Sections 25-6-101 through 25-6-407.
- (14) Nothing in this section alters rights vested or created under this section before May 14, 2019.
