

26A-1-108 Jurisdiction and duties of local departments.

A local health department has jurisdiction in all unincorporated and incorporated areas of the county or counties in which it is established and shall enforce state health laws, Department of Health, Department of Environmental Quality, and local health department rules, regulations, and standards within those areas.

Amended by Chapter 249, 2002 General Session