31A-22-701 Groups eligible for group or blanket insurance.

(1) As used in this section, "association group" means a lawfully formed association of individuals or business entities that:
   (a) purchases insurance on a group basis on behalf of members; and
   (b) is formed and maintained in good faith for purposes other than obtaining insurance.

(2) A group accident and health insurance policy may be issued to:
   (a) a group:
      (i) to which a group life insurance policy may be issued under Sections 31A-22-502, 31A-22-503, 31A-22-504, 31A-22-506, 31A-22-507, and 31A-22-509; and
      (ii) that is formed and maintained in good faith for a purpose other than obtaining insurance;
   (b) an association group that:
      (i) has been actively in existence for at least five years;
      (ii) has a constitution and bylaws;
      (iii) has a shared or common purpose that is not primarily a business or customer relationship;
      (iv) is formed and maintained in good faith for purposes other than obtaining insurance;
      (v) does not condition membership in the association group on any health status-related factor relating to an individual, including an employee of an employer or a dependent of an employee;
      (vi) makes accident and health insurance coverage offered through the association group available to all members regardless of any health status-related factor relating to the members or individuals eligible for coverage through a member;
      (vii) does not make accident and health insurance coverage offered through the association group available other than in connection with a member of the association group; and
      (viii) is actuarially sound; or
   (c) a group specifically authorized by the commissioner under Section 31A-22-509, upon a finding that:
      (i) authorization is not contrary to the public interest;
      (ii) the group is actuarially sound;
      (iii) formation of the proposed group may result in economies of scale in acquisition, administrative, marketing, and brokerage costs;
      (iv) the insurance policy, insurance certificate, or other indicia of coverage that will be offered to the proposed group is substantially equivalent to insurance policies that are otherwise available to similar groups;
      (v) the group would not present hazards of adverse selection;
      (vi) the premiums for the insurance policy and any contributions by or on behalf of the insured persons are reasonable in relation to the benefits provided; and
      (vii) the group is formed and maintained in good faith for a purpose other than obtaining insurance.

(3) A blanket accident and health insurance policy:
   (a) covers a defined class of persons;
   (b) may not be offered or underwritten on an individual basis;
   (c) shall cover only a group that is:
      (i) actuarially sound; and
      (ii) formed and maintained in good faith for a purpose other than obtaining insurance; and
(d) may be issued only to:
   (i) a common carrier or an operator, owner, or lessee of a means of transportation, as policyholder, covering persons who may become passengers as defined by reference to the person's travel status;
   (ii) an employer, as policyholder, covering any group of employees, dependents, or guests, as defined by reference to specified hazards incident to any activities of the policyholder;
   (iii) an institution of learning, including a school district, a school jurisdictional unit, or the head, principal, or governing board of a school jurisdictional unit, as policyholder, covering students, teachers, or employees;
   (iv) a religious, charitable, recreational, educational, or civic organization, or branch of one of those organizations, as policyholder, covering a group of members or participants as defined by reference to specified hazards incident to the activities sponsored or supervised by the policyholder;
   (v) a sports team, camp, or sponsor of a sports team or camp, as policyholder, covering members, campers, employees, officials, or supervisors;
   (vi) a volunteer fire department, first aid, civil defense, or other similar volunteer organization, as policyholder, covering a group of members or participants as defined by reference to specified hazards incident to activities sponsored, supervised, or participated in by the policyholder;
   (vii) a newspaper or other publisher, as policyholder, covering its carriers;
   (viii) an association, including a labor union, that has a constitution and bylaws and that is organized in good faith for purposes other than that of obtaining insurance, as policyholder, covering a group of members or participants as defined by reference to specified hazards incident to the activities or operations sponsored or supervised by the policyholder; and
   (ix) any other class of risks that, in the judgment of the commissioner, may be properly eligible for blanket accident and health insurance.

(4) The judgment of the commissioner may be exercised on the basis of:
   (a) individual risks;
   (b) a class of risks; or
   (c) both Subsections (4)(a) and (b).

31A-22-702 Adjustment of premium rate and application of dividends or rate reductions.
Any group accident and health insurance policy may provide for the adjustment of the rate of premium based upon the experience under the contract. If a policy dividend is declared or a reduction in rate is made or continued for the first or any subsequent year of insurance under any policy of group accident and health insurance, the excess, if any, of the aggregate dividends or rate reductions under the policy and all other group insurance policies of the policyholder over the aggregate expenditure for insurance under those policies made from funds contributed by the policyholder, including expenditures made in connection with the administration of the policies, shall be applied by the policyholder for the sole benefit of insured employees or members unless the insured employee or member explicitly elects otherwise.

31A-22-717 Provisions pertaining to service members and their families affected by mobilization into the armed forces.
For any group or blanket accident and health coverage, an insurer:
(1) may not refuse to reinstate an insured or his family whose coverage lapsed due to the insured’s mobilization into the United States armed forces provided application is made within 180 days of release from active duty;
(2) shall reinstate an insured in full upon payment of the first premium without the requirement of a waiting period or exclusion for preexisting conditions or any other underwriting requirements that were covered previously; and
(3) may not increase the insured’s premium in excess of what it would have been increased in the normal course of time had the insured not been mobilized into the United States armed forces.

31A-22-722 Utah mini-COBRA benefits for employer group coverage.
(1) An insured may extend the employee’s coverage under the current employer’s group policy for a period of 12 months, except as provided in Subsections (2) and 31A-22-722.5(4). The right to extend coverage includes:
(a) voluntary termination;
(b) involuntary termination;
(c) retirement;
(d) death;
(e) divorce or legal separation;
(f) loss of dependent status;
(g) sabbatical;
(h) a disability;
(i) leave of absence; or
(j) reduction of hours.

(a) Notwithstanding Subsection (1), an employee may not extend coverage under the current employer's group insurance policy if the employee:
   (i) fails to pay premiums or contributions in accordance with the terms of the insurance policy;
   (ii) acquires other group coverage covering all preexisting conditions including maternity, if the coverage exists;
   (iii) performs an act or practice that constitutes fraud in connection with the coverage;
   (iv) makes an intentional misrepresentation of material fact under the terms of the coverage;
   (v) is terminated from employment for gross misconduct;
   (vi) is not continuously covered under the current employer’s group policy for a period of three months immediately before the termination of the insurance policy due to an event set forth in Subsection (1);
   (vii) is eligible for an extension of coverage required by federal law;
   (viii) establishes residence outside of this state;
   (ix) moves out of the insurer's service area;
   (x) is eligible for similar coverage under another group insurance policy; or
   (xi) has the employee's coverage terminated because the employer's coverage is terminated, except as provided in Subsection (8).
(b) The right to extend coverage under Subsection (1) applies to spouse or dependent coverage, including a surviving spouse or dependents whose coverage under the insurance policy terminates by reason of the death of the employee or member.

(3)
(a) The employer shall notify the following in writing of the right to extend group coverage and the payment amounts required for extension of coverage, including the manner, place, and time in which the payments shall be made:
   (i) a terminated insured;
   (ii) an ex-spouse of an insured; or
   (iii) if Subsection (2)(b) applies:
      (A) a surviving spouse; and
      (B) the guardian of surviving dependents, if different from a surviving spouse.
(b) The notification required in Subsection (3)(a) shall be sent first class mail within 30 days after the termination date of the group coverage to:
   (i) the terminated insured's home address as shown on the records of the employer;
   (ii) the address of the surviving spouse, if different from the insured's address and if shown on the records of the employer;
   (iii) the guardian of any dependents address, if different from the insured's address, and if shown on the records of the employer; and
   (iv) the address of the ex-spouse, if shown on the records of the employer.

(4) The insurer shall provide the employee, spouse, or any eligible dependent the opportunity to extend the group coverage at the payment amount stated in Subsection (5) if:
(a) the employer policyholder does not provide the terminated insured the written notification required by Subsection (3)(a); and
(b) the employee or other individual eligible for extension contacts the insurer within 60 days of coverage termination.
(5) A premium amount for extended group coverage may not exceed 102% of the group rate in effect for a group member, including an employer's contribution, if any, for a group insurance policy.

(6) Except as provided in this Subsection (6), coverage extends without interruption for 12 months and may not terminate if the terminated insured or, with respect to a minor, the parent or guardian of the terminated insured:
(a) elects to extend group coverage within 60 days of losing group coverage; and
(b) tenders the amount required to the employer or insurer.

(7) The insured's coverage may be terminated before 12 months if the terminated insured:
(a) establishes residence outside of this state;
(b) moves out of the insurer's service area;
(c) fails to pay premiums or contributions in accordance with the terms of the insurance policy, including any timeliness requirements;
(d) performs an act or practice that constitutes fraud in connection with the coverage;
(e) makes an intentional misrepresentation of material fact under the terms of the coverage;
(f) becomes eligible for similar coverage under another group insurance policy; or
(g) has the coverage terminated because the employer's coverage is terminated, except as provided in Subsection (8).

(8) If the current employer coverage is terminated and the employer replaces coverage with similar coverage under another group insurance policy, without interruption, the terminated insured, spouse, or the surviving spouse and guardian of dependents if Subsection (2)(b) applies, may obtain extension of coverage under the replacement group insurance policy:
(a) for the balance of the period the terminated insured would have extended coverage under the replaced group insurance policy; and
(b) if the terminated insured is otherwise eligible for extension of coverage.

Amended by Chapter 319, 2013 General Session

(1)
(a) If the provisions of Subsection (1)(b) are met, an individual has a right to contact the individual's employer or the insurer for the employer to participate in a transition period for mini-COBRA benefits under Section 31A-22-722 in accordance with Section 3001 of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (Pub. L. 111-5), as amended.

(b) An individual has the right under Subsection (1)(a) if the individual:
(i) was involuntarily terminated from employment during the period of time identified in Section 3001 of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (Pub. L. 111-5), as amended;
(ii) is eligible for COBRA premium assistance under Section 3001 of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (Pub. L. 111-5), as amended;
(iii) was eligible for Utah mini-COBRA as provided in Section 31A-22-722 at the time of termination;
(iv) elected Utah mini-Cobra; and
(v) voluntarily dropped coverage, which includes dropping coverage through non-payment of premiums, between December 1, 2009 and February 1, 2010.

(a) An individual or the employer of the individual shall contact the insurer and inform the insurer that the individual wants to maintain coverage and pay retroactive premiums under a transition period for mini-COBRA coverage in accordance with the provisions of Section 3001 of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (Pub. L. 111-5), as amended.

(b) An individual or an employer on behalf of an eligible individual shall submit the applicable forms and premiums for coverage under Subsection (1) to the insurer in accordance with the provisions of Section 3001 of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (Pub. L. 111-5), as amended.

(3) An insured has the right to extend the employee's coverage under mini-cobra with the current employer's group policy beyond the 12 months to the period of time the insured is eligible to receive assistance in accordance with Section 3001 of the American Recovery and Reinvestment Act of 2009 (Pub. L. 111-5) as amended.

(4) An insurer that violates this section is subject to penalties in accordance with Section 31A-2-308.

31A-22-725 Special enrollment periods relating to Medicaid and Children's Health Insurance Program.

(1) A person is eligible to enroll for coverage under the terms of an employer's group health benefit plan if:
   (a) the person is:
      (i) an employee who is eligible, but not enrolled, for coverage under the terms of the employer's group health benefit plan; or
      (ii) a dependent of an employee, if the dependent is eligible, but not enrolled, for coverage under the terms of the employer's group health benefit plan; and
   (b) the conditions of either Subsection (2) or (3) are met.

(2) Subsection (1) applies if:
   (a) the employee or dependent is covered under:
      (i) a Medicaid health benefit plan under Title XIX of the Social Security Act; or
      (ii) a state child health benefit plan under Title XXI of the Social Security Act;
   (b) coverage of the employee or dependent described in Subsection (2)(a) is terminated as a result of loss of eligibility for the coverage; and
   (c) the employee requests coverage under the employer's group health plan no later than 60 days after the date of termination of the coverage described in Subsection (2)(a).

(3) Subsection (1) applies if:
   (a) the employee or dependent becomes eligible for assistance, with respect to coverage under the employer's group health plan under a plan described in Subsection (2)(a), including under a waiver or demonstration project conducted under or in relation to a plan described in Subsection (2)(a); and
   (b) the employee requests coverage under the employer's group health plan no later than 60 days after the date the employee or dependent is determined to be eligible for the assistance described in Subsection (3)(a).

31A-22-726 Abortion coverage restriction in health benefit plan and on health insurance exchange.

(1) As used in this section, "permitted abortion coverage" means coverage for abortion:
(a) that is necessary to avert:
   (i) the death of the woman on whom the abortion is performed; or
   (ii) a serious risk of substantial and irreversible impairment of a major bodily function of the woman on whom the abortion is performed;
(b) of a fetus that has a defect that is documented by a physician or physicians to be uniformly diagnosable and uniformly lethal; or
(c) where the woman is pregnant as a result of:
   (i) rape, as described in Section 76-5-402;
   (ii) rape of a child, as described in Section 76-5-402.1; or
   (iii) incest, as described in Subsection 76-5-406(10) or Section 76-7-102.

(2) A person may not offer coverage for an abortion in a health benefit plan, unless the coverage is a type of permitted abortion coverage.

(3) A person may not offer a health benefit plan that provides coverage for an abortion in a health insurance exchange created under Title 63N, Chapter 11, Health System Reform Act, unless the coverage is a type of permitted abortion coverage.

(4) A person may not offer a health benefit plan that provides coverage for an abortion in a health insurance exchange created under the federal Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act, 111
   P.L. 148, unless the coverage is a type of permitted abortion coverage.
