

Effective 5/10/2016

31A-22-603 Persons insured under an individual accident and health policy.

A policy of individual accident and health insurance may insure only one person, except that originally or by subsequent amendment, upon the application of an adult policyholder, a policy may insure any two or more eligible members of the policyholder's family, including spouse, dependent children, and any other person dependent upon the policyholder.

Amended by Chapter 138, 2016 General Session
