

31A-22-610.2 Maternity stay minimum limits.

(1)

(a) If an insured has coverage for maternity benefits, the policy may not be limited to a less than a 48-hour benefit for both mother and newborn with a normal vaginal delivery.

(b) If an insured has coverage for maternity benefits, the policy may not be limited to a less than 96-hour benefit for both mother and newborn with a caesarean section delivery.

(2) Subsection (1) applies to an accident and health insurer who offers maternity coverage.

Amended by Chapter 116, 2001 General Session