

39-1-13 Adjutant general -- As disbursing and property officer.

The adjutant general shall be the disbursing and property officer for the state, expending state funds allocated to the National Guard through the Division of Finance according to established procedures.

Amended by Chapter 22, 1989 General Session