

39-1-14 Adjutant general -- Drawing vouchers for property damage.

The adjutant general shall, with the approval of the governor, draw vouchers on the state appropriation for the National Guard, payable to the United States, to cover any damage to the United States property charged to the state, when such damage shall have been properly adjudged to be payable by the state.

No Change Since 1953