

46-1-15 Inspection of journal -- Safekeeping and custody of journal.

If a notary maintains a journal, the notary shall:

- (1) safeguard the journal and all other notarial records as valuable public documents and may not destroy the documents; and
- (2) keep the journal in the exclusive custody of the notary, not to be used by any other notary or surrendered to an employer upon termination of employment.

Repealed and Re-enacted by Chapter 287, 1998 General Session