

Effective 5/7/2025

53-3-807 Expiration -- Address and name change -- Extension.

- (1)
 - (a) A regular identification card expires on the birth date of the applicant in the fifth year after the issuance of the regular identification card.
 - (b) A limited-term identification card expires on:
 - (i) the expiration date of the period of time of the individual's authorized stay in the United States or on the birth date of the applicant in the fifth year after the issuance of the limited-term identification card, whichever is sooner; or
 - (ii) on the date of issuance in the first year after the year that the limited-term identification card was issued if there is no definite end to the individual's period of authorized stay.
 - (a) Except as provided in Subsection (2)(b), if an individual has applied for and received an identification card and subsequently moves from the address shown on the application or on the card, the individual shall, within 10 days after the day on which the individual moves, notify the division in a manner specified by the division of the individual's new address.
 - (b) If an individual who is required to register as a sex offender, kidnap offender, or child abuse offender under Title 53, Chapter 29, Sex, Kidnap, and Child Abuse Offender Registry, has applied for and received an identification card and subsequently moves from the address shown on the application or on the card, the individual shall, within 30 days after the day on which the individual moves, apply for an updated identification card in-person at a division office.
- (3) If an individual has applied for and received an identification card and subsequently changes the individual's name under Title 42, Chapter 1, Change of Name, the individual:
 - (a) shall surrender the card to the division; and
 - (b) may apply for a new card in the individual's new name by:
 - (i) furnishing proper documentation to the division as provided in Section 53-3-804; and
 - (ii) paying the fee required under Section 53-3-105.
- (4) A person 21 years old or older with a disability, as defined under the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990, Pub. L. 101-336, may extend the expiration date on an identification card for five years if the person with a disability or an agent of the person with a disability:
 - (a) requests that the division send the application form to obtain the extension or requests an application form in person at the division's offices;
 - (b) completes the application;
 - (c) certifies that the extension is for a person 21 years old or older with a disability; and
 - (d) returns the application to the division together with the identification card fee required under Section 53-3-105.
- (5)
 - (a) The division may extend a valid regular identification card issued after January 1, 2010, for five years at any time within six months before the day on which the identification card expires.
 - (b) The application for an extension of a regular identification card is accompanied by a fee under Section 53-3-105.
 - (c) The division shall allow extensions:
 - (i) by mail, electronic means, or other means as determined by the division at the appropriate extension fee rate under Section 53-3-105; and
 - (ii) only if the applicant qualifies under this section.
- (6)

- (a) A regular identification card may only be extended once under Subsections (4) and (5).
- (b) After an extension an application for an identification card must be applied for in person at the division's offices.
