

53B-2-102 Board to appoint president for each institution.

The board, after consulting with the institution's board of trustees, appoints a president for each institution in the state system of higher education who serves at its pleasure and at such salary as it may determine.

Amended by Chapter 58, 1991 General Session