Part 5
Unlawful and Unprofessional Conduct

58-64-501 Unlawful conduct.

"Unlawful conduct" includes:

- (1) a licensee conducting a deception detection examination:
 - (a) outside of the physical presence of the subject of the examination;
 - (b) on the subject of the examination by use of any electronic means, including the telephone; and
 - (c) through any surreptitious means when the subject of the examination is not aware of the examination; and
- (2) conducting a deception detection examination if the individual performing the deception detection examinations is located outside of the state and performs a deception detection examination by any electronic means upon a person located within the state.

Enacted by Chapter 215, 1995 General Session

58-64-502 Unprofessional conduct.

"Unprofessional conduct" includes:

- (1) using any deception detection instrument that does not meet criteria and standards established by rule by the division; and
- (2) using any deception detection instrument that does not make a permanent recording as required under Section 58-64-601.

Amended by Chapter 154, 2020 General Session

Part 6
Operating Standards

58-64-601 Deception detection instruments.

- (1) Instruments or software applications used in performing deception detection examinations shall be those that are generally recognized in the profession or, if approved by the director, those with results published in peer-reviewed, scientific journals generally recognized by the scientific community.

- (2) An instrument or software application used for deception detection shall have a permanent recording or written report produced by the instrument or software application for objective analysis by the examiner or the division.
- (3) A written interpretation by an examiner while conducting a deception detection examination does not satisfy the requirements of a permanent recording.

Amended by Chapter 154, 2020 General Session

Part 7

Regulatory Jurisdiction

58-64-701 State preemption of local regulation.

- (1) A political subdivision of the state may not enact legislation, ordinances, or rules relating to the licensing, training, or regulation of deception detection examiners, deception detection interns, or deception detection examination administrators.
- (2) Any legislation, ordinances, or rules made by a political subdivision of the state relating to the licensing, training, or regulation of deception detection examiners, deception detection interns, or deception detection examination administrators is superseded by this chapter.
