

61-2f-505 Additional license fee.

- (1) An individual who applies for or renews a principal broker or associate broker license shall pay, in addition to the application or renewal fee, a reasonable annual fee of up to $18, as determined by the division with the concurrence of the commission.
- (2) An individual who applies for or renews a sales agent license shall pay in addition to the application or renewal fee a reasonable annual fee of up to $12, as determined by the division with the concurrence of the commission.
- (3) Notwithstanding Section 13-1-2, the additional fees under this section shall be paid into the fund.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 379, 2010 General Session