 - (b) The division may serve the notice described in Subsection (1)(a) within a reasonable time after the 15 day period described in Subsection (1)(a) if:
 - (i) the delay is necessary in order to:
 - (A) avoid impeding an ongoing criminal investigation or proceeding; or
 - (B) protect the safety of a person; and
 - (ii) the notice is provided before the supported finding is used as a basis to deny the person a license or otherwise adversely impact the person.
- (2) The division shall cause the notice described in Subsection (1)(a) to be served by personal service or certified mail.
- (3) The notice described in Subsection (1)(a) shall:
 - (a) indicate that the division has conducted an investigation regarding alleged abuse, neglect, or exploitation of a vulnerable adult by the alleged perpetrator;
 - (b) indicate that, as a result of the investigation described in Subsection (3)(a), the division made a supported finding that the alleged perpetrator committed abuse, neglect, or exploitation of a vulnerable adult;
 - (c) include a summary of the facts that are the basis for the supported finding;
 - (d) indicate that the supported finding may result in disqualifying the person from:
 - (i) being licensed, certified, approved, or employed by a government agency;
 - (ii) being employed by a service provider, person, or other entity that contracts with, or is licensed by, a government agency; or
 - (iii) qualifying as a volunteer for an entity described in Subsection (3)(d)(i) or (ii);

- (4)
 - (a) The alleged perpetrator has the right, within 30 days after the day on which the notice described in Subsection (1)(a) is served, to challenge the supported finding by filing a request for an informal adjudicative proceeding, under Title 63G, Chapter 4, Administrative Procedures Act.
 - (b) If the alleged perpetrator fails to file a request for an informal adjudicative proceeding within the time described in Subsection (4)(a), the supported finding will become final and will not be subject to challenge or appeal.
- (5) At the hearing described in Subsection (4)(a), the division has the burden of proving, by a preponderance of the evidence, that the alleged perpetrator committed abuse, neglect, or exploitation of a vulnerable adult.
- (6) Notwithstanding any provision of this section, an alleged perpetrator described in this section may not challenge a supported finding if a court of competent jurisdiction entered a finding in a proceeding to which the alleged perpetrator was a party, that the alleged perpetrator committed the abuse, neglect, or exploitation of a vulnerable adult, upon which the supported finding is based.

- (7) A person who was listed in the database as a perpetrator before May 5, 2008, and who did not have an opportunity to challenge the division's finding that resulted in the listing, may at any time:
