

Chapter 2 Government Records Access and Management Act

Part 1 General Provisions

63G-2-101 Title.

This chapter is known as the "Government Records Access and Management Act."

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 382, 2008 General Session

63G-2-102 Legislative intent.

- (1) In enacting this act, the Legislature recognizes two constitutional rights:
  - (a) the public's right of access to information concerning the conduct of the public's business; and
  - (b) the right of privacy in relation to personal data gathered by governmental entities.
- (2) The Legislature also recognizes a public policy interest in allowing a government to restrict access to certain records, as specified in this chapter, for the public good.
- (3) It is the intent of the Legislature to:
  - (a) promote the public's right of easy and reasonable access to unrestricted public records;
  - (b) specify those conditions under which the public interest in allowing restrictions on access to records may outweigh the public's interest in access;
  - (c) prevent abuse of confidentiality by governmental entities by permitting confidential treatment of records only as provided in this chapter;
  - (d) provide guidelines for both disclosure and restrictions on access to government records, which are based on the equitable weighing of the pertinent interests and which are consistent with nationwide standards of information practices;
  - (e) favor public access when, in the application of this act, countervailing interests are of equal weight; and
  - (f) establish fair and reasonable records management practices.

    - (i) A single record request may not be submitted to multiple governmental entities.
    - (ii) Subsection (1)(b)(i) may not be construed to prevent a person from submitting a separate record request to each of multiple governmental entities, even if each of the separate requests seeks access to the same record.
- (2)
  - (a) In response to a request for a record, a governmental entity may not provide a record that it has received under Section 63G-2-206 as a shared record.
  - (b) If a governmental entity is prohibited from providing a record under Subsection (2)(a), the governmental entity shall:

- (4) After receiving a request for a record, a governmental entity shall:

- (5) Any person who requests a record to obtain information for a story or report for publication or broadcast to the general public is presumed to be acting to benefit the public rather than a person.
- (6) The following circumstances constitute "extraordinary circumstances" that allow a governmental entity to delay approval or denial by an additional period of time as specified in Subsection (7) if the governmental entity determines that due to the extraordinary circumstances it cannot respond within the time limits provided in Subsection (4):
  - (a) another governmental entity is using the record, in which case the originating governmental entity shall promptly request that the governmental entity currently in possession return the record;
  - (b) another governmental entity is using the record as part of an audit, and returning the record before the completion of the audit would impair the conduct of the audit;

    - (ii) the requester seeks a substantial number of records or records series in requests filed within five working days of each other;

  - (h) segregating information that the requester is entitled to inspect from information that the requester is not entitled to inspect requires computer programming.

- (7) If one of the extraordinary circumstances listed in Subsection (6) precludes approval or denial within the time specified in Subsection (4), the following time limits apply to the extraordinary circumstances:
- (a) for claims under Subsection (6)(a), the governmental entity currently in possession of the record shall return the record to the originating entity within five business days of the request for the return unless returning the record would impair the holder's work;
  - (b) for claims under Subsection (6)(b), the originating governmental entity shall notify the requester when the record is available for inspection and copying;
  - (c) for claims under Subsections (6)(c), (d), and (e), the governmental entity shall:

    - (iii) complete the work and disclose those records that the requester is entitled to inspect as soon as reasonably possible; and
    - (iv) for any person that does not establish a right to an expedited response as authorized by Subsection (4), a governmental entity may choose to:
      - (A) require the person to provide for copying of the records as provided in Subsection 63G-2-201(10); or
      - (B) treat a request for multiple records as separate record requests, and respond sequentially to each request;

  - (b) If the request is forwarded promptly, the time limit for response begins when the request is received by the office specified by rule.
- (9) If the governmental entity fails to provide the requested records or issue a denial within the specified time period, that failure is considered the equivalent of a determination denying access to the record.
