

63M-7-517 Additional testing.

- (1) If the mental, physical, or emotional condition of a victim is material to a claim, the reparations officer, director, or chair of the board who hears the claim or the appeal may order the claimant to submit to a mental or physical examination by a physician or psychologist and may recommend to the court to order an autopsy of a deceased victim.
- (2) Any order for additional examination shall be for good cause shown and shall provide notice to the person to be examined and the person's representative.
- (3) All reports from additional examinations shall set out findings, including results of all tests made, diagnoses, prognoses, other conclusions, and reports of earlier examinations of the same conditions.
- (4) A copy of the report shall be made available to the victim or the representative of the victim unless dissemination of that copy is prohibited by law.
