

65A-1-12 Filing date of applications and bids.

Any application or bid required for the lease, permitting, or sale of state lands in a competitive process shall be considered filed or made on the date received by the appropriate division office, whether transmitted by the United States mail or in any other manner.

Enacted by Chapter 283, 1991 General Session