Amended by Chapter 427, 2013 General Session

67-21-3 Reporting of governmental waste or violations of law -- Employer action -- Exceptions.

(1)
(a) An employer may not take adverse action against an employee because the employee, or a person authorized to act on behalf of the employee, communicates in good faith:
(i) the waste or misuse of public funds, property, or manpower;
(ii) a violation or suspected violation of a law, rule, or regulation adopted under the law of this state, a political subdivision of this state, or any recognized entity of the United States; or
(iii) as it relates to a state government employer:
(A) gross mismanagement;
(B) abuse of authority; or
(C) unethical conduct.
(b) For purposes of Subsection (1)(a), an employee is presumed to have communicated in good faith if the employee gives written notice or otherwise formally communicates the conduct described in Subsection (1)(a) to:
(i) a person in authority over the person alleged to have engaged in the conduct described in Subsection (1)(a);
(ii) the attorney general's office;
(iii) law enforcement, if the conduct is criminal in nature;
(iv) if the employee is a public entity employee, public body employee, legislative employee, or a judicial employee:
(A) the state auditor's office;
(B) the president of the Senate;
(C) the speaker of the House of Representatives;
(D) the Office of Legislative Auditor General;
(E) the governor's office;
(F) the state court administrator; or
(G) the Division of Finance;
(v) if the employee is a public entity employee, but not an employee of a state institution of higher education, the director of the Division of Purchasing and General Services;
(vi) if the employee is a political subdivision employee:
(A) the legislative body, or a member of the legislative body, of the political subdivision;
(B) the governing body, or a member of the governing body, of the political subdivision;
(C) the top executive of the political subdivision; or
(D) any government official with authority to audit the political subdivision or the applicable part of the political subdivision; or
(vii) if the employee is an employee of a state institution of higher education:
(A) the State Board of Regents or a member of the State Board of Regents;
(B) the commissioner of higher education;
(C) the president of the state institution of higher education where the employee is employed; or
(D) the entity that conducts audits of the state institution of higher education where the employee is employed.

(c) The presumption described in Subsection (1)(b) may be rebutted by showing that the employee knew or reasonably ought to have known that the report is malicious, false, or frivolous.

(2) An employer may not take adverse action against an employee because an employee participates or gives information in an investigation, hearing, court proceeding, legislative or other inquiry, or other form of administrative review held by the public body.

(3) An employer may not take adverse action against an employee because the employee has objected to or refused to carry out a directive that the employee reasonably believes violates a law of this state, a political subdivision of this state, or the United States, or a rule or regulation adopted under the authority of the laws of this state, a political subdivision of this state, or the United States.

(4) An employer may not implement rules or policies that unreasonably restrict an employee's ability to document:

   (a) the waste or misuse of public funds, property, or manpower;
   (b) a violation or suspected violation of any law, rule, or regulation; or
   (c) as it relates to a state government employer:
       (i) gross mismanagement;
       (ii) abuse of authority; or
       (iii) unethical conduct.

67-21-3.5 Administrative review of adverse action against a public entity employee.

(1) A public entity employee who believes that the employee's employer has taken retaliatory action against the employee in violation of this chapter may file a grievance with the Career Service Review Office in accordance with Section 67-19a-402.5 and subject to Section 67-21-4.

(2) If the Career Service Review Office determines that retaliatory action is taken in violation of this chapter against the public entity employee, the Career Service Review Office may order:

   (a) reinstatement of the public entity employee at the same level held by the public entity employee before the retaliatory action;
   (b) the payment of back wages, in accordance with Subsection 67-19a-406(5)(b);
   (c) full reinstatement of benefits;
   (d) full reinstatement of other employment rights; or
   (e) if the retaliatory action includes failure to promote, as described in Subsection 67-19a-101(11)(d), a pay raise that results in the employee receiving the pay that the employee would have received if the person had been promoted.

(3) A public entity employer has the burden to prove by substantial evidence that the public entity employer's action was justified.

(4) A public entity employee or public entity employer may appeal a determination of the Career Service Review Office as provided in Section 67-19a-402.5.

Amended by Chapter 390, 2018 General Session

67-21-3.6 Administrative review for political subdivision employees.

(1)
(a) A political subdivision may adopt an ordinance to establish an independent personnel board to hear and take action on a complaint alleging adverse action.

(b) The ordinance described in Subsection (1)(a) shall include:
   (i) procedures for filing a complaint and conducting a hearing; and
   (ii) a burden of proof on the employer to establish by substantial evidence that the employer's action was justified by reasons unrelated to the employee's good faith actions under Section 67-21-3.

(2) If a political subdivision adopts an ordinance described in Subsection (1), a political subdivision employee may file a complaint with the independent personnel board alleging adverse action.

(3) If an independent personnel board finds that adverse action is taken in violation of the ordinance described in Subsection (1)(a), the independent personnel board may order:
   (a) reinstatement of the employee at the same level as before the adverse action;
   (b) the payment of back wages;
   (c) full reinstatement of fringe benefits;
   (d) full reinstatement of seniority rights; or
   (e) if the adverse action includes failure to promote, as described in Subsection 67-19a-101(11)(d), a pay raise that results in the employee receiving the pay that the employee would have received if the person had been promoted.

Enacted by Chapter 427, 2013 General Session

67-21-3.7 Administrative review for state institution of higher education employees.

(1) (a) As used in this section, "independent personnel board" means a board where no member of the board:
   (i) is in the same department as the complainant;
   (ii) is a supervisor of the complainant; or
   (iii) has a conflict of interest in relation to the complainant or an allegation made in the complaint.

(b) A state institution of higher education shall adopt a policy to establish an independent personnel board to hear and take action on a complaint alleging adverse action.

(c) The policy described in Subsection (1)(b) shall include:
   (i) procedures for filing a complaint and conducting a hearing; and
   (ii) a burden of proof on the employer to establish by substantial evidence that the employer's action was justified by reasons unrelated to the employee's good faith actions under Section 67-21-3.

(2) (a) An employee of a state institution of higher education may file a complaint with the independent personnel board described in Subsection (1)(b) alleging adverse action.

(b) An independent personnel board that receives a complaint under Subsection (2)(a) shall hear the matter, resolve the complaint, and take action under Subsection (3) within the later of:
   (i) 30 days after the day on which the employee files the complaint; or
   (ii) a longer period of time, not to exceed 30 additional days, if the employee and the independent personnel board mutually agree on the longer time period.

(3) If an independent personnel board finds that adverse action is taken in violation of the policy described in Subsection (1)(b), the independent personnel board may order, or recommend to a final decision maker:
   (a) reinstatement of the employee at the same level as before the adverse action;
(b) the payment of back wages;
(c) full reinstatement of fringe benefits;
(d) full reinstatement of seniority rights; or
(e) if the adverse action includes failure to promote, as described in Subsection 67-19a-101(11)
   (d), a pay raise that results in the employee receiving the pay that the employee would have received if the person had been promoted.

(4) A final decision maker who receives a recommendation under Subsection (3) shall render a decision and enter an order within seven days after the day on which the final decision maker receives the recommendation.

67-21-4 Choice of forum -- Remedies for employee bringing action -- Proof required.
(1)
(a) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(b) or (d), and subject to Subsections (1)(d) through (e), an employee who alleges a violation of this chapter may bring a civil action for appropriate injunctive relief, damages, or both, within 180 days after the occurrence of the alleged violation of this chapter.
(b) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(d):
   (i) an employee of a political subdivision that has adopted an ordinance described in Section
       67-21-3.6:
       (A) may bring a civil action described in Subsection (1)(a) within 180 days after the day on which the employee has exhausted administrative remedies; and
       (B) may not bring a civil action described in Subsection (1)(a) until the employee has exhausted administrative remedies; and
   (ii) an employee of a state institution of higher education:
       (A) may bring a civil action described in Subsection (1)(a) within 180 days after the day on which the employee has exhausted administrative remedies; and
       (B) may not bring a civil action described in Subsection (1)(a) until the employee has exhausted administrative remedies.
(c) Except as provided in Subsection (1)(d), a public entity employee who is not a legislative employee or a judicial employee may bring a claim of retaliatory action by selecting one of the following methods:
   (i) filing a grievance with the Career Service Review Office in accordance with Section 67-19a-402.5; or
   (ii) bringing a civil action for appropriate injunctive relief, damages, or both, within 180 days after the occurrence of the alleged violation of this chapter.
(d)
   (i) A claimant may bring an action after the 180-day limit described in this Subsection (1) if:
       (A) the claimant originally brought the action within the 180-day time limit;
       (B) the action described in Subsection (1)(d)(i)(A) failed or was dismissed for a reason other than on the merits; and
       (C) the claimant brings the new action within 180 days after the day on which the claimant originally brought the action under Subsection (1)(d)(i)(A).
   (ii) A claimant may commence a new action under this Subsection (1)(d) only once.
(e) A public entity employee who files a grievance under Subsection (1)(d)(i):
   (i) may not, at any time, bring a civil action in relation to the subject matter of the grievance;
   (ii) may seek a remedy described in Subsection 67-21-3.5(2); and
(iii) waives the right to seek a remedy or a type of damages not included in Subsection 67-21-3.5(2).

(f) A public entity employee who files a civil action under Subsection (1)(d)(ii) may not, at any time, file a grievance with the Career Service Review Office in relation to the subject matter of the civil action.

(2) An employee who brings a civil action under this section shall bring the action in the district court for the county where the alleged violation occurred, the county where the complainant resides, or the county where the person against whom the civil complaint is filed resides or has the person's principal place of business.

(3) To prevail in an action brought under this section, the employer shall prove by substantial evidence that the employer’s action was justified.

Amended by Chapter 178, 2018 General Session

67-21-5 Court orders for violation of chapter.
(1) A court, in rendering a judgment in an action brought under this chapter, may order reinstatement of the employee at the same level, the payment of back wages, full reinstatement of fringe benefits and seniority rights, damages, or any combination of these remedies.
(2) A court shall award the complainant all or a portion of the costs of litigation, which are defined to include reasonable attorney fees and witness fees, if the court determines that the complainant prevails.

Amended by Chapter 427, 2013 General Session

67-21-6 Civil fine.
(1)
(a) A person who violates this chapter is liable for a civil fine of not more than $500.
(b) The person who takes an adverse action against an employee in violation of this chapter, and not the public body that employs the employee, shall, after receiving notice and an opportunity to be heard, pay the civil fine under this Subsection (1).
(c) If a person is ordered to pay a civil fine under this Subsection (1), the employer may dismiss the person who took the adverse action in violation of this chapter.
(2) A civil fine ordered under this chapter shall be submitted to the state treasurer for deposit in the General Fund.
(3) The civil fine described in this section may be imposed if a violation of this chapter is found by:
(a) an independent personnel board described in Subsection 67-21-3.6(1)(a) or 67-21-3.7(1)(a);
(b) the Career Service Review Office; or
(c) a court.
