- (a) the purchase-money collateral also secures an obligation that is not a purchase-money obligation;
 - (b) collateral that is not purchase-money collateral also secures the purchase-money obligation; or
 - (c) the purchase-money obligation has been renewed, refinanced, consolidated, or restructured.
- (7) In a transaction other than a consumer-goods transaction, a secured party claiming a purchase-money security interest has the burden of establishing the extent to which the security interest is a purchase-money security interest.
- (8) The limitation of the rules in Subsections (5), (6), and (7) to transactions other than consumer-goods transactions is intended to leave to the court the determination of the proper rules in consumer-goods transactions. - (1) A security interest perfected pursuant to the law of the jurisdiction designated in Subsection 70A-9a-301(1) or 70A-9a-305(3) remains perfected until the earliest of:
 - (a) the time perfection would have ceased under the law of that jurisdiction;
 - (b) the expiration of four months after a change of the debtor's location to another jurisdiction; or
 - (c) the expiration of one year after a transfer of collateral to a person that thereby becomes a debtor and is located in another jurisdiction.
- (2) If a security interest described in Subsection (1) becomes perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earliest time or event described in that subsection, it remains perfected thereafter. If the security interest does not become perfected under the law of the other

- jurisdiction before the earliest time or event, it becomes unperfected and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.
- (3) A possessory security interest in collateral, other than goods covered by a certificate of title and as-extracted collateral consisting of goods, remains continuously perfected if:
 - (a) the collateral is located in one jurisdiction and subject to a security interest perfected under the law of that jurisdiction;
 - (b) thereafter the collateral is brought into another jurisdiction; and
 - (c) upon entry into the other jurisdiction, the security interest is perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction.
 - (4) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (5), a security interest in goods covered by a certificate of title which is perfected by any method under the law of another jurisdiction when the goods become covered by a certificate of title from this state remains perfected until the security interest would have become unperfected under the law of the other jurisdiction had the goods not become so covered.
 - (5) A security interest described in Subsection (4) becomes unperfected as against a purchaser of the goods for value and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the goods for value if the applicable requirements for perfection under Subsection 70A-9a-311(2) or Section 70A-9a-313 are not satisfied before the earlier of:
 - (a) the time the security interest would have become unperfected under the law of the other jurisdiction had the goods not become covered by a certificate of title from this state; or
 - (b) the expiration of four months after the goods had become so covered.
 - (6) A security interest in deposit accounts, letter-of-credit rights, or investment property which is perfected under the law of the bank's jurisdiction, the issuer's jurisdiction, a nominated person's jurisdiction, the securities intermediary's jurisdiction, or the commodity intermediary's jurisdiction, as applicable, remains perfected until the earlier of:

 - (7) If a security interest described in Subsection (6) becomes perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier of the time or the end of the period described in that subsection, it remains perfected thereafter. If the security interest does not become perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier of that time or the end of that period, it becomes unperfected and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.
 - (8) The following rules apply to collateral to which a security interest attaches within four months after the debtor changes its location to another jurisdiction:
 - (a) A financing statement filed before the change pursuant to the law of the jurisdiction designated in Subsection 70A-9a-301(1) or 70A-9a-305(3) is effective to perfect a security interest in the collateral if the financing statement would have been effective to perfect a security interest in the collateral had the debtor not changed its location.
 - (b) If a security interest perfected by a financing statement that is effective under Subsection (8) (a) becomes perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier of the time the financing statement would have been ineffective under the law of the jurisdiction designated in Subsection 70A-9a-301(1) or 70A-9a-305(3) or the expiration of the four-month period, it remains perfected thereafter. If the security interest does not become perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier time or event, it becomes unperfected and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.

- (9) If a financing statement naming an original debtor is filed pursuant to the law of the jurisdiction designated in Subsection 70A-9a-301(1) or 70A-9a-305(3) and the new debtor is located in another jurisdiction, the following rules apply:
- (a) The financing statement is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the new debtor before, and within four months after, the new debtor becomes bound under Subsection 70A-9a-203(4), if the financing statement would have been effective to perfect a security interest in the collateral had the collateral been acquired by the original debtor.
 - (b) A security interest perfected by the financing statement and which becomes perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier of the time the financing statement would have been ineffective under the law of the jurisdiction designated in Subsection 70A-9a-301(1) or 70A-9a-305(3) or the expiration of the four-month period remains perfected thereafter. A security interest that is perfected by the financing statement but which does not become perfected under the law of the other jurisdiction before the earlier time or event becomes unperfected and is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.

- (2) This chapter does not prevent creation of an encumbrance upon fixtures under real property law.
- (3) In cases not governed by Subsections (4) through (8), a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the related real property other than the debtor.
- (4) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (8), a perfected security interest in fixtures has priority over a conflicting interest of an encumbrancer or owner of the real property if the debtor has an interest of record in or is in possession of the real property and:
 - (a) the security interest is a purchase-money security interest;
 - (b) the interest of the encumbrancer or owner arises before the goods become fixtures; and
 - (c) the security interest is perfected by a fixture filing before the goods become fixtures or within 20 days thereafter.

Except as otherwise provided in Subsections (5) and (6), a security interest in fixtures is subordinate to a construction mortgage if a record of the mortgage is recorded before the goods become fixtures and the goods become fixtures before the completion of the construction. A mortgage has this priority to the same extent as a construction mortgage to the extent that it is given to refinance a construction mortgage.

70A-9a-337 Priority of security interests in goods covered by certificate of title.

If, while a security interest in goods is perfected by any method under the law of another jurisdiction, this state issues a certificate of title that does not show that the goods are subject to the security interest or contain a statement that they may be subject to security interests not shown on the certificate:

- (1) a buyer of the goods, other than a person in the business of selling goods of that kind, takes free of the security interest if the buyer gives value and receives delivery of the goods after issuance of the certificate and without knowledge of the security interest; and
- (2) the security interest is subordinate to a conflicting security interest in the goods that attaches, and is perfected under Subsection 70A-9a-311(2), after issuance of the certificate and without the conflicting secured party's knowledge of the security interest.

Enacted by Chapter 252, 2000 General Session

70A-9a-338 Priority of security interest or agricultural lien perfected by filed financing statement providing certain incorrect information.

If a security interest or agricultural lien is perfected by a filed financing statement providing information described in Subsection 70A-9a-516(2)(e) which is incorrect at the time the financing statement is filed:

- (1) the security interest or agricultural lien is subordinate to a conflicting perfected security interest in the collateral to the extent that the holder of the conflicting security interest gives value in reasonable reliance upon the incorrect information; and
- (2) a purchaser, other than a secured party, of the collateral takes free of the security interest or agricultural lien to the extent that, in reasonable reliance upon the incorrect information, the purchaser gives value and, in the case of tangible chattel paper, tangible documents, goods, instruments, or a security certificate, receives delivery of the collateral.

70A-9a-339 Priority subject to subordination.

This chapter does not preclude subordination by agreement by a person entitled to priority.

70A-9a-340 Effectiveness of right of recoupment or set-off against deposit account.

- (1) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (3), a bank with which a deposit account is maintained may exercise any right of recoupment or set-off against a secured party that holds a security interest in the deposit account.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (3), the application of this chapter to a security interest in a deposit account does not affect a right of recoupment or set-off of the secured party as to a deposit account maintained with the secured party.
- (3) The exercise by a bank of a set-off against a deposit account is ineffective against a secured party that holds a security interest in the deposit account which is perfected by control under Subsection 70A-9a-104(1)(c), if the set-off is based on a claim against the debtor.

70A-9a-341 Bank's rights and duties with respect to deposit account.

Except as otherwise provided in Subsection 70A-9a-340(3), and unless the bank otherwise agrees in an authenticated record, a bank's rights and duties with respect to a deposit account maintained with the bank are not terminated, suspended, or modified by:

- (1) the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the deposit account;
- (2) the bank's knowledge of the security interest; or
- (3) the bank's receipt of instructions from the secured party.

Enacted by Chapter 252, 2000 General Session

70A-9a-342 Bank's right to refuse to enter into or disclose existence of control agreement.

This chapter does not require a bank to enter into an agreement of the kind described in Subsection 70A-9a-104(1)(b), even if its customer so requests or directs. A bank that has entered into such an agreement is not required to confirm the existence of the agreement to another person unless requested to do so by its customer.

Part 4 Rights of Third Parties

70A-9a-401 Alienability of debtor's rights.

- (1) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (2) and Sections 70A-9a-406, 70A-9a-407, 70A-9a-408, and 70A-9a-409, whether a debtor's rights in collateral may be voluntarily or involuntarily transferred is governed by law other than this chapter.
- (2) An agreement between the debtor and secured party which prohibits a transfer of the debtor's rights in collateral or makes the transfer a default does not prevent the transfer from taking effect.

Enacted by Chapter 252, 2000 General Session

70A-9a-402 Secured party not obligated on contract of debtor or in tort.

The existence of a security interest, agricultural lien, or authority given to a debtor to dispose of or use collateral, without more, does not subject a secured party to liability in contract or tort for the debtor's acts or omissions.

70A-9a-403 Agreement not to assert defenses against assignee.

- (1) In this section, "value" has the meaning provided in Subsection 70A-3-303(1).
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in this section, an agreement between an account debtor and an assignor not to assert against an assignee any claim or defense that the account debtor may have against the assignor is enforceable by an assignee that takes an assignment:
 - (a) for value;
 - (b) in good faith;
 - (c) without notice of a claim of a property or possessory right to the property assigned; and
 - (d) without notice of a defense or claim in recoupment of the type that may be asserted against a person entitled to enforce a negotiable instrument under Subsection 70A-3-305(1).
- (3) Subsection (2) does not apply to defenses of a type that may be asserted against a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument under Subsection 70A-3-305(2).

- (4) In a consumer transaction, if a record evidences the account debtor's obligation, law other than this chapter requires that the record include a statement to the effect that the rights of an assignee are subject to claims or defenses that the account debtor could assert against the original obligee, and the record does not include such a statement:
 - (a) the record has the same effect as if the record included such a statement; and
 - (b) the account debtor may assert against an assignee those claims and defenses that would have been available if the record included such a statement.
- (5) This section is subject to law other than this chapter which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.
- (6) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (4), this section does not displace law other than this chapter which gives effect to an agreement by an account debtor not to assert a claim or defense against an assignee.

70A-9a-404 Rights acquired by assignee -- Claims and defenses against assignee.

- (1) Unless an account debtor has made an enforceable agreement not to assert defenses or claims, and subject to Subsections (2) through (5), the rights of an assignee are subject to:
 - (a) all terms of the agreement between the account debtor and assignor and any defense or claim in recoupment arising from the transaction that gave rise to the contract; and
 - (b) any other defense or claim of the account debtor against the assignor which accrues before the account debtor receives a notification of the assignment authenticated by the assignor or the assignee.
- (2) Subject to Subsection (3) and except as otherwise provided in Subsection (4), the claim of an account debtor against an assignor may be asserted against an assignee under Subsection (1) only to reduce the amount the account debtor owes.
- (3) This section is subject to law other than this chapter which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.
- (4) In a consumer transaction, if a record evidences the account debtor's obligation, law other than this chapter requires that the record include a statement to the effect that the account debtor's recovery against an assignee with respect to claims and defenses against the assignor may not exceed amounts paid by the account debtor under the record, and the record does not include such a statement, the extent to which a claim of an account debtor against the assignor may be asserted against an assignee is determined as if the record included such a statement.
- (5) This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable.

Enacted by Chapter 252, 2000 General Session

70A-9a-405 Modification of assigned contract.

- (1) A modification of or substitution for an assigned contract is effective against an assignee if made in good faith. The assignee acquires corresponding rights under the modified or substituted contract. The assignment may provide that the modification or substitution is a breach of contract by the assignor. This Subsection (1) is subject to Subsections (2) through (4).
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to the extent that:

- (a) the right to payment or a part thereof under an assigned contract has not been fully earned by performance; or
- (b) the right to payment or a part thereof has been fully earned by performance and the account debtor has not received notification of the assignment under Subsection 70A-9a-406(1).
- (3) This section is subject to law other than this chapter which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.
- (4) This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable.

Enacted by Chapter 252, 2000 General Session

70A-9a-406 Discharge of account debtor -- Notification of assignment -- Identification and proof of assignment -- Restrictions on assignment of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, and promissory notes ineffective.

- (1) Subject to Subsections (2) through (9), an account debtor on an account, chattel paper, or a payment intangible may discharge its obligation by paying the assignor until, but not after, the account debtor receives a notification, authenticated by the assignor or the assignee, that the amount due or to become due has been assigned and that payment is to be made to the assignee. After receipt of the notification, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying the assignee and may not discharge the obligation by paying the assignor.
- (2) Subject to Subsection (8), notification is ineffective under Subsection (1):
 - (a) if it does not reasonably identify the rights assigned;
 - (b) to the extent that an agreement between an account debtor and a seller of a payment intangible limits the account debtor's duty to pay a person other than the seller and the limitation is effective under law other than this chapter; or
 - (c) at the option of an account debtor, if the notification notifies the account debtor to make less than the full amount of any installment or other periodic payment to the assignee, even if:
 - (i) only a portion of the account, chattel paper, or payment intangible has been assigned to that assignee;
 - (ii) a portion has been assigned to another assignee; or
 - (iii) the account debtor knows that the assignment to that assignee is limited.
- (3) Subject to Subsection (8), if requested by the account debtor, an assignee shall seasonably furnish reasonable proof that the assignment has been made. Unless the assignee complies, the account debtor may discharge its obligation by paying the assignor, even if the account debtor has received a notification under Subsection (1).
- (4) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (5) and Sections 70A-2a-303 and 70A-9a-407, and subject to Subsection (8), a term in an agreement between an account debtor and an assignor or in a promissory note is ineffective to the extent that it:
 - (a) prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the account debtor or person obligated on the promissory note to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in, the account, chattel paper, payment intangible, or promissory note; or
 - (b) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the account, chattel paper, payment intangible, or promissory note.

- (5) Subsection (4) does not apply to the sale of a payment intangible or promissory note, other than a sale pursuant to a disposition under Section 70A-9a-610 or an acceptance of collateral under Section 70A-9a-620.
- (6) Except as otherwise provided in Sections 70A-2a-303 and 70A-9a-407 and subject to Subsections (8) and (9), a rule of law, statute, or regulation that prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a government, governmental body or official, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or creation of a security interest in, an account or chattel paper is ineffective to the extent that the rule of law, statute, or regulation:
 - (a) prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the government, governmental body or official, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in the account or chattel paper; or
 - (b) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the account or chattel paper.
- (7) Subject to Subsection (8), an account debtor may not waive or vary its option under Subsection (2)(c).
- (8) This section is subject to law other than this chapter which establishes a different rule for an account debtor who is an individual and who incurred the obligation primarily for personal, family, or household purposes.
- (9) This section does not apply to an assignment of a health-care-insurance receivable.

Amended by Chapter 225, 2013 General Session

70A-9a-407 Restrictions on creation or enforcement of security interest in leasehold interest or in lessor's residual interest.

- (1) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (2), a term in a lease agreement is ineffective to the extent that it:
 - (a) prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a party to the lease to the assignment or transfer of, or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in, an interest of a party under the lease contract or in the lessor's residual interest in the goods; or
 - (b) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the lease.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection 70A-2a-303(7), a term described in Subsection (1)
 - (b) is effective to the extent that there is:
 - (a) a transfer by the lessee of the lessee's right of possession or use of the goods in violation of the term; or
 - (b) a delegation of a material performance of either party to the lease contract in violation of the term.
- (3) The creation, attachment, perfection, or enforcement of a security interest in the lessor's interest under the lease contract or the lessor's residual interest in the goods is not a transfer that materially impairs the lessee's prospect of obtaining return performance or materially changes the duty of or materially increases the burden or risk imposed on the lessee within the purview of Subsection 70A-2a-303(4) unless, and then only to the extent that, enforcement actually results in a delegation of material performance of the lessor.

Enacted by Chapter 252, 2000 General Session

70A-9a-408 Restrictions on assignment of promissory notes, health-care-insurance receivables, and certain general intangibles ineffective.

- (1) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (2), a term in a promissory note or in an agreement between an account debtor and a debtor which relates to a health-care-insurance receivable or a general intangible, including a contract, permit, license, or franchise, and which term prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor to, the assignment or transfer of, or creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in, the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, is ineffective to the extent that the term:
 - (a) would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest; or
 - (b) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.
- (2) Subsection (1) applies to a security interest in a payment intangible or promissory note only if the security interest arises out of a sale of the payment intangible or promissory note, other than a sale pursuant to a disposition under Section 70A-9a-610 or an acceptance of collateral under Section 70A-9a-620.
- (3) A rule of law, statute, or regulation that prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of a government, governmental body or official, person obligated on a promissory note, or account debtor to the assignment or transfer of, or creation of a security interest in, a promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, including a contract, permit, license, or franchise between an account debtor and a debtor, is ineffective to the extent that the rule of law, statute, or regulation:
 - (a) would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest; or
 - (b) provides that the assignment or transfer or the creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.
- (4) To the extent that a term in a promissory note or in an agreement between an account debtor and a debtor which relates to a health-care-insurance receivable or general intangible or a rule of law, statute, or regulation described in Subsection (3) would be effective under law other than this chapter but is ineffective under Subsection (1) or (3), the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible:
 - (a) is not enforceable against the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor;
 - (b) does not impose a duty or obligation on the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor;
 - (c) does not require the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor to recognize the security interest, pay or render performance to the secured party, or accept payment or performance from the secured party;
 - (d) does not entitle the secured party to use or assign the debtor's rights under the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible, including any related information or materials furnished to the debtor in the transaction giving rise to the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible;

- (e) does not entitle the secured party to use, assign, possess, or have access to any trade secrets or confidential information of the person obligated on the promissory note or the account debtor; and
- (f) does not entitle the secured party to enforce the security interest in the promissory note, health-care-insurance receivable, or general intangible.

Amended by Chapter 225, 2013 General Session

70A-9a-409 Restrictions on assignment of letter-of-credit rights ineffective.

- (1) A term in a letter of credit or a rule of law, statute, regulation, custom, or practice applicable to the letter of credit which prohibits, restricts, or requires the consent of an applicant, issuer, or nominated person to a beneficiary's assignment of or creation of a security interest in a letter-of-credit right is ineffective to the extent that the term or rule of law, statute, regulation, custom, or practice:
 - (a) would impair the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the letter-of-credit right; or
 - (b) provides that the assignment or the creation, attachment, or perfection of the security interest may give rise to a default, breach, right of recoupment, claim, defense, termination, right of termination, or remedy under the letter-of-credit right.
- (2) To the extent that a term in a letter of credit is ineffective under Subsection (1) but would be effective under law other than this chapter or a custom or practice applicable to the letter of credit, to the transfer of a right to draw or otherwise demand performance under the letter of credit, or to the assignment of a right to proceeds of the letter of credit, the creation, attachment, or perfection of a security interest in the letter-of-credit right:
 - (a) is not enforceable against the applicant, issuer, nominated person, or transferee beneficiary;
 - (b) imposes no duties or obligations on the applicant, issuer, nominated person, or transferee beneficiary; and
 - (c) does not require the applicant, issuer, nominated person, or transferee beneficiary to recognize the security interest, pay or render performance to the secured party, or accept payment or other performance from the secured party.

- (2) The office in which to file a financing statement to perfect a security interest in collateral, including fixtures, of a transmitting utility is the Division of Corporations and Commercial Code. The financing statement also constitutes a fixture filing as to the collateral indicated in the financing statement which is or is to become fixtures.

- (1) Subject to Subsection (2), a financing statement is sufficient only if it:
 - (a) provides the name of the debtor;
 - (b) provides the name of the secured party or a representative of the secured party; and
 - (c) indicates the collateral covered by the financing statement.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection 70A-9a-501(2), to be sufficient, a financing statement that covers as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut, or which is filed as a fixture filing and covers goods that are or are to become fixtures, must satisfy Subsection (1) and also:
 - (a) indicate that it covers this type of collateral;
 - (b) indicate that it is to be filed for record in the real property records;
 - (c) provide a legal description of the real property to which the collateral is related; and
 - (d) if the debtor does not have an interest of record in the real property, provide the name of a record owner.
- (3) A record of a mortgage is effective, from the date of recording, as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing or as a financing statement covering as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut only if:
 - (a) the record indicates the goods or accounts that it covers;
 - (b) the goods are or are to become fixtures related to the real property described in the record or the collateral is related to the real property described in the record and is as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut;
 - (c) the record satisfies the requirements for a financing statement in this section, but:
 - (i) the record need not indicate that it is to be filed in the real property records; and
 - (ii) the record sufficiently provides the name of a debtor who is an individual if it provides the individual name of the debtor or the surname and first personal name of the debtor, even if the debtor is an individual to whom Subsection 70A-9a-503(1)(d) applies; and
 - (d) the record is recorded.
- (4) A financing statement may be filed before a security agreement is made or a security interest otherwise attaches.
- (5)
 - (a) The requirements of Title 57, Real Estate, do not apply to a financing statement filed or recorded in a filing office described in Subsection 70A-9a-501(1)(a) that:
 - (i) covers as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut; or
 - (ii)
 - (A) is filed as a fixture filing; and 70A-9a-503 Name of debtor and secured party.

- (1) A financing statement sufficiently provides the name of the debtor:
- (a) except as otherwise provided in Subsection (1)(c), if the debtor is a registered organization or the collateral is held in a trust that is a registered organization, only if the financing statement provides the name that is stated to be the registered organization's name on the public organic record most recently filed with or issued or enacted by the registered organization's jurisdiction of organization which purports to state, amend, or restate the registered organization's name;
 - (b) subject to Subsection (6), if the collateral is being administered by the personal representative of a decedent, only if the financing statement provides, as the name of the debtor, the name of the decedent and, in a separate part of the financing statement, indicates that the collateral is being administered by a personal representative;
 - (c) if the collateral is held in a trust that is not a registered organization, only if the financing statement:
 - (i) provides, as the name of the debtor:
 - (A) if the organic record of the trust specifies a name for the trust, the name specified; or
 - (B) if the organic record of the trust does not specify a name for the trust, the name of the settlor or testator; and
 - (ii) in a separate part of the financing statement:
 - (A) if the name provided in accordance with Subsection (1)(c)(i)(A), indicates the collateral is held in a trust; or
 - (B) if the name is provided in accordance with Subsection (1)(c)(i)(B), provides additional information sufficient to distinguish the trust from other trusts having one or more of the same settlors or the same testator and indicates that the collateral is held in a trust, unless the additional information so indicates;
 - (d) subject to Subsection (7), if the debtor is an individual to whom the state Driver License Division of the Department of Public Safety has issued a driver license that has not expired, or if the debtor does not have an unexpired driver license, an individual to whom the state Driver License Division of the Department of Public Safety has issued an unexpired identification card, only if the financing statement provides the name of the individual which is indicated on the driver license or identification card;
 - (e) if the debtor is an individual to whom Subsection (1)(d) does not apply, only if the financing statement provides the individual name of the debtor or the surname and first personal name of the debtor; and
 - (f) in other cases:
 - (i) if the debtor has a name, only if the financing statement provides the organizational name of the debtor; and
 - (ii) if the debtor does not have a name, only if it provides the names of the partners, members, associates, or other persons comprising the debtor, in a manner that each name provided would be sufficient if the person named were the debtor.

- (2) A financing statement that provides the name of the debtor in accordance with Subsection (1) is not rendered ineffective by the absence of:
 - (a) a trade name or other name of the debtor; or
 - (b) unless required under Subsection (1)(f)(ii), names of partners, members, associates, or other persons comprising the debtor.
- (3) A financing statement that provides only the debtor's trade name does not sufficiently provide the name of the debtor.
- (4) Failure to indicate the representative capacity of a secured party or representative of a secured party does not affect the sufficiency of a financing statement.
- (5) A financing statement may provide the name of more than one debtor and the name of more than one secured party.
- (6) The name of the decedent indicated on the order appointing the personal representative of the decedent issued by the court having jurisdiction over the collateral is sufficient as the "name of the decedent" under Subsection (1)(b).
- (7) If this state has issued to an individual more than one driver license or identification card of a kind described in Subsection (1)(d), the one that was issued most recently is the one to which Subsection (1)(d) refers.
- (8) In this section, the "name of the settlor or testator" means:
 - (a) if the settlor is a registered organization, the name that is stated to be the settlor's name on the public organic record most recently filed with or issued or enacted by the settlor's jurisdiction of organization which purports to state, amend, or restate the settlor's name; or
 - (b) in the other cases, the name of the settlor or testator indicated in the trust's organic record.

70A-9a-504 Indication of collateral.

- (2) an indication that the financing statement covers all assets or all personal property.

Enacted by Chapter 252, 2000 General Session

70A-9a-505 Filing and compliance with other statutes and treaties for consignments, leases, other bailments, and other transactions.

- (1) A consignor, lessor, or other bailor of goods, a licensor, or a buyer of a payment intangible or promissory note may file a financing statement, or may comply with a statute or treaty described in Subsection 70A-9a-311(1), using the terms "consignor," "consignee," "lessor," "lessee," "bailor," "bailee," "licensor," "licensee," "owner," "registered owner," "buyer," "seller," or words of similar import, instead of the terms "secured party" and "debtor."
- (2) This part applies to the filing of a financing statement under Subsection (1) and, as appropriate, to compliance that is equivalent to filing a financing statement under Subsection 70A-9a-311(2), but the filing or compliance is not of itself a factor in determining whether the collateral secures an obligation. If it is determined for another reason that the collateral secures an obligation, a security interest held by the consignor, lessor, bailor, licensor, owner, or buyer which attaches to the collateral is perfected by the filing or compliance.

Enacted by Chapter 252, 2000 General Session

70A-9a-506 Effect of errors or omissions.

- (1) A financing statement substantially satisfying the requirements of this part is effective, even if it has minor errors or omissions, unless the errors or omissions make the financing statement seriously misleading.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (3), a financing statement that fails sufficiently to provide the name of the debtor in accordance with Subsection 70A-9a-503(1) is seriously misleading.
- (3) If a search of the records of the filing office under the debtor's correct name, using the filing office's standard search logic, if any, would disclose a financing statement that fails sufficiently to provide the name of the debtor in accordance with Subsection 70A-9a-503(1), the name provided does not make the financing statement seriously misleading.
- (4) For purposes of Subsection 70A-9a-508(2), the "debtor's correct name" in Subsection (3) means the correct name of the new debtor.

Enacted by Chapter 252, 2000 General Session

70A-9a-507 Effect of certain events on effectiveness of financing statement.

- (1) A filed financing statement remains effective with respect to collateral that is sold, exchanged, leased, licensed, or otherwise disposed of and in which a security interest or agricultural lien continues, even if the secured party knows of or consents to the disposition.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (3) and Section 70A-9a-508, a financing statement is not rendered ineffective if, after the financing statement is filed, the information provided in the financing statement becomes seriously misleading under Section 70A-9a-506.
- (3) If the name that a filed financing statement provides for a debtor becomes insufficient as the name of the debtor under Subsection 70A-9a-503(1) so that the financing statement becomes seriously misleading under Section 70A-9a-506:
 - (a) the financing statement is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor before, or within four months after, the filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading; and
 - (b) the financing statement is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the debtor more than four months after the filed financing statement becomes seriously misleading, unless an amendment to the financing statement which renders the financing statement not seriously misleading is filed within four months after the financing statement became seriously misleading.

70A-9a-508 Effectiveness of financing statement if new debtor becomes bound by security agreement.

- (1) Except as otherwise provided in this section, a filed financing statement naming an original debtor is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral in which a new debtor has or acquires rights to the extent that the financing statement would have been effective had the original debtor acquired rights in the collateral.
- (2) If the difference between the name of the original debtor and that of the new debtor causes a filed financing statement that is effective under Subsection (1) to be seriously misleading under Section 70A-9a-506:

- (a) the financing statement is effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the new debtor before, and within four months after, the new debtor becomes bound under Subsection 70A-9a-203(4); and
 - (b) the financing statement is not effective to perfect a security interest in collateral acquired by the new debtor more than four months after the new debtor becomes bound under Subsection 70A-9a-203(4) unless an initial financing statement providing the name of the new debtor is filed before the expiration of that time.
- (3) This section does not apply to collateral as to which a filed financing statement remains effective against the new debtor under Subsection 70A-9a-507(1).

- (4) A person may file an amendment other than an amendment that adds collateral covered by a financing statement or an amendment that adds a debtor to a financing statement only if:
- (a) the secured party of record authorizes the filing; or
 - (b) the amendment is a termination statement for a financing statement as to which the secured party of record has failed to file or send a termination statement as required by Subsection 70A-9a-513(1) or (3), the debtor authorizes the filing, and the termination statement indicates that the debtor authorized it to be filed.

 - (i)
 - (A) the entry number of the initial financing statement; or
 - (B) the book and page where the initial financing statement was filed or recorded; and
 - (ii) the information specified in Subsection 70A-9a-502(2).

- (4) A financing statement that is amended by an amendment that adds a debtor is effective as to the added debtor only from the date of the filing of the amendment.
- (5) An amendment is ineffective to the extent it:
 - (a) purports to delete all debtors and fails to provide the name of a debtor to be covered by the financing statement; or
 - (b) purports to delete all secured parties of record and fails to provide the name of a new secured party of record.

70A-9a-513 Termination statement.

- (1) A secured party shall cause the secured party of record for a financing statement to file a termination statement for the financing statement if the financing statement covers consumer goods and:

- (a) there is no obligation secured by the collateral covered by the financing statement and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation, or otherwise give value; or
 - (b) the debtor did not authorize the filing of the initial financing statement.
- (2) To comply with Subsection (1), a secured party shall cause the secured party of record to file the termination statement:
- (a) within one month after there is no obligation secured by the collateral covered by the financing statement and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation, or otherwise give value; or
 - (b) if earlier, within 20 days after the secured party receives an authenticated demand from a debtor.
- (3) In cases not governed by Subsection (1), within 20 days after a secured party receives an authenticated demand from a debtor, the secured party shall cause the secured party of record for a financing statement to send to the debtor a termination statement for the financing statement or file the termination statement in the filing office if:
- (a) except in the case of a financing statement covering accounts or chattel paper that has been sold or goods that are the subject of a consignment, there is no obligation secured by the collateral covered by the financing statement and no commitment to make an advance, incur an obligation, or otherwise give value;
 - (b) the financing statement covers accounts or chattel paper that has been sold but as to which the account debtor or other person obligated has discharged its obligation;
 - (c) the financing statement covers goods that were the subject of a consignment to the debtor but are not in the debtor's possession; or
 - (d) the debtor did not authorize the filing of the initial financing statement.
- (4) Except as otherwise provided in Section 70A-9a-510, upon the filing of a termination statement with the filing office, the financing statement to which the termination statement relates ceases to be effective. Except as otherwise provided in Section 70A-9a-510, for purposes of Subsections 70A-9a-519(7), 70A-9a-522(1), and 70A-9a-525(3), the filing with the filing office of a termination statement relating to a financing statement that indicates that the debtor is a transmitting utility also causes the effectiveness of the financing statement to lapse.

- (a) If a debtor files a termination statement, the filing office shall send to the secured party of record for the financing statement to which the termination statement relates, a notice stating that the termination statement has been filed.
 - (b) The filing office shall send notice described in Subsection (5)(a):

70A-9a-513.5 Termination of wrongfully filed financing statement -- Reinstatement.

- (1) As used in this section:
 - (a) "Established filer" means a person that:

- (i) regularly causes records to be communicated to the filing office for filing and has provided the filing office with current contact information and information sufficient to establish its identity; or
 - (ii) satisfies either of the following conditions:
 - (A) the filing office has issued the person credentials for access to online filing services; or
 - (B) the person has established an account for payment of filing fees, regardless of whether the account is used in a particular transaction.
 - (b) "Filing office" means the same as that term is defined in Section 70A-9a-102, except that it does not include a county recorder office.
- (2) A person identified as debtor in a filed financing statement may deliver to the filing office the debtor's notarized affidavit, signed under penalty of perjury, that identifies the financing statement by file number, indicates the affiant's mailing address, and states that the affiant believes that the filed record identifying the affiant as debtor was not authorized and was caused to be communicated to the filing office with the intent to harass or defraud the affiant. The filing office shall adopt a form of affidavit for use under this section. The filing office may reject an affidavit described in this Subsection (2) if:
- (a) the affidavit is incomplete; or
 - (b) the filing office reasonably believes that the affidavit was communicated to the filing office with the intent to harass or defraud, or for any other unlawful purpose.
- (3) Subject to Subsection (10), if an affidavit is delivered to the filing office under Subsection (2), the filing office shall promptly file a termination statement with respect to the financing statement identified in the affidavit. The termination statement must identify by its file number the initial financing statement to which it relates and must indicate that it was filed pursuant to this section. A termination statement filed under this Subsection (3) is not effective until 14 days after it is filed.
- (4) The filing office may not charge a fee for the filing of an affidavit under Subsection (2) or a termination statement under Subsection (3). The filing office may not return any fee paid for filing the financing statement identified in the affidavit, whether or not the financing statement is reinstated under Subsection (7).
- (5) On the same day that a filing office files a termination statement under Subsection (3), it shall send to the secured party of record for the financing statement to which the termination statement relates a notice stating that the termination statement has been filed and will become effective 14 days after filing. The notice shall be sent by mail to the address provided for the secured party of record in the financing statement or by electronic mail to the electronic mail address provided by the secured party of record, if any.
- (6)
- (a) A secured party that believes in good faith that the filed record identified in an affidavit delivered to the filing office under Subsection (2) was authorized and was not caused to be communicated to the filing office with the intent to harass or defraud the affiant may:
 - (i) before the termination statement takes effect under Subsection (3), request the filing office to review the filed record concerning whether the filed record was filed with the intent to harass or defraud; or
 - (ii) regardless of whether the affiant seeks a review under Subsection (6)(a)(i), file an action against the filing office seeking reinstatement of the financing statement to which the filed record relates.
 - (b) Within 10 days after being served with process in an action under this Subsection (6), the filing office shall file a notice indicating that the action has been commenced. The notice shall indicate the file number of the initial financing statement to which it relates.

- (c) If the affiant is not named as a defendant in the action described in Subsection (6)(a)(ii), the secured party shall send a copy of the complaint to the affiant at the address indicated in the affidavit. A party may petition the court to consider the matter on an expedited basis.
- (d) An action under this Subsection (6) must be filed before the expiration of six months after the date on which the termination statement filed under Subsection (3) becomes effective.
- (7) If, in an action under Subsection (6), the court determines that the financing statement should be reinstated, the filing office shall promptly file a record that identifies by its file number the initial financing statement to which the record relates and indicates that the financing statement has been reinstated.
- (8) Upon the filing of a record reinstating a financing statement under Subsection (7), the effectiveness of the financing statement is reinstated and the financing statement shall be considered never to have been terminated under this section. A continuation statement filed as provided in Subsection 70A-9a-515(4) after the effective date of a termination statement filed under Subsection (3) or (10) becomes effective if the financing statement is reinstated.
- (9) If, in an action under Subsection (6), the court determines that the filed record identified in an affidavit delivered to the filing office under Subsection (2) was unauthorized and was caused to be communicated to the filing office with the intent to harass or defraud the affiant, the filing office and the affiant may recover from the secured party that filed the action the costs and expenses, including reasonable attorney fees, that the filing office and the affiant incurred in the action. This recovery is in addition to any recovery to which the affiant is entitled under Section 70A-9a-625.
- (10) If an affidavit delivered to a filing office under Subsection (2) relates to a filed record communicated to the filing office by an established filer, the filing office shall promptly send to the secured party of record a notice stating that the affidavit has been delivered to the filing office and that the filing office is conducting an administrative review to determine whether the record was unauthorized and was caused to be communicated with the intent to harass or defraud the affiant. The notice shall be sent by mail to the address provided for the secured party in the financing statement or sent by electronic mail to the electronic mail address provided by the secured party of record, if any, and a copy shall be sent in the same manner to the affiant. The administrative review shall be conducted on an expedited basis and the filing office may require the affiant and the secured party of record to provide any additional information that the filing office considers appropriate. If the filing office concludes that the record was not authorized and was caused to be communicated with the intent to harass or defraud the affiant, the filing office shall promptly file a termination statement under Subsection (3) that will be effective immediately and send to the secured party of record the notice required by Subsection (5). The secured party may thereafter file an action for reinstatement under Subsection (6), and Subsections (7) through (9) are applicable.

- (2) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (3), a secured party of record may assign of record all or part of its power to authorize an amendment to a financing statement by filing in the filing office an amendment of the financing statement which:

 - (b) provides the name of the assignor; and
 - (c) provides the name and mailing address of the assignee.
- (3) An assignment of record of a security interest in a fixture covered by a record of a mortgage which is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing under Subsection 70A-9a-502(3) may be made only by an assignment of record of the mortgage in the manner provided by law of this state other than this title.

70A-9a-515 Duration and effectiveness of financing statement -- Effect of lapsed financing statement.

- (1) Except as otherwise provided in Subsections (2), (5), (6), and (7), a filed financing statement is effective for a period of five years after the date of filing.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in Subsections (5), (6), and (7), an initial financing statement filed in connection with a public-finance transaction or manufactured-home transaction is effective for a period of 30 years after the date of filing if it indicates that it is filed in connection with a public-finance transaction or manufactured-home transaction.
- (3) The effectiveness of a filed financing statement lapses on the expiration of the period of its effectiveness unless before the lapse a continuation statement is filed pursuant to Subsection (4). Upon lapse, a financing statement ceases to be effective and any security interest or agricultural lien that was perfected by the financing statement becomes unperfected, unless the security interest is perfected otherwise. If the security interest or agricultural lien becomes unperfected upon lapse, it is deemed never to have been perfected as against a purchaser of the collateral for value.
- (4) A continuation statement may be filed only within six months before the expiration of the five-year period specified in Subsection (1) or the 30-year period specified in Subsection (2), whichever is applicable.
- (5) Except as otherwise provided in Section 70A-9a-510, upon timely filing of a continuation statement, the effectiveness of the initial financing statement continues for a period of five years commencing on the day on which the financing statement would have become ineffective in the absence of the filing. Upon the expiration of the five-year period, the financing statement lapses in the same manner as provided in Subsection (3), unless, before the lapse, another continuation statement is filed pursuant to Subsection (4). Succeeding continuation statements may be filed in the same manner to continue the effectiveness of the initial financing statement.
- (6) If a debtor is a transmitting utility and a filed initial financing statement so indicates, the financing statement is effective until a termination statement is filed.
- (7) A record of a mortgage that is effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing under Subsection 70A-9a-502(3) remains effective as a financing statement filed as a fixture filing until the mortgage is released or satisfied of record or its effectiveness otherwise terminates as to the real property.

70A-9a-516 What constitutes filing -- Effectiveness of filing.

- (1) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (2) or (5), communication of a record to a filing office and tender of the filing fee or acceptance of the record by the filing office constitutes filing.

- (2) Filing does not occur with respect to a record that a filing office refuses to accept because:
- (a) the record is not communicated by a method or medium of communication authorized by the filing office;
 - (b) an amount equal to or greater than the applicable filing fee is not tendered;
 - (c) the filing office is unable to index the record because:
 - (i) in the case of an initial financing statement, the record does not provide a name for the debtor;
 - (ii) in the case of an amendment or information statement, the record:
 - (A) does not identify the initial financing statement as required by Section 70A-9a-512 or 70A-9a-518, as applicable; or
 - (B) identifies an initial financing statement whose effectiveness has lapsed under Section 70A-9a-515;
 - (iii) in the case of an initial financing statement that provides the name of a debtor identified as an individual or an amendment that provides a name of a debtor identified as an individual which was not previously provided in the financing statement to which the record relates, the record does not identify the debtor's surname; or
 - (iv) in the case of a record filed or recorded in the filing office described in Subsection 70A-9a-501(1)(a), the record does not provide a sufficient description of the real property to which it relates;
 - (d) in the case of an initial financing statement or an amendment that adds a secured party of record, the record does not provide a name and mailing address for the secured party of record;
 - (e) in the case of an initial financing statement or an amendment that provides a name of a debtor which was not previously provided in the financing statement to which the amendment relates, the record does not:
 - (i) provide a mailing address for the debtor; or
 - (ii) indicate whether the name provided as the name of the debtor is the name of an individual or an organization;
 - (f) in the case of an assignment reflected in an initial financing statement under Subsection 70A-9a-514(1) or an amendment filed under Subsection 70A-9a-514(2), the record does not provide a name and mailing address for the assignee;
 - (g) in the case of a continuation statement, the record is not filed within the six-month period prescribed by Subsection 70A-9a-515(4); or
 - (h) in the case of an initial financing statement or an amendment that provides a name of a debtor that was not previously provided in the financing statement to which the amendment relates, the record was not communicated to the filing office, as defined in Section 70A-9a-513.5, by an established filer, as defined in Section 70A-9a-513.5, and the filing office reasonably believes that the record was caused to be communicated to the filing office with the intent to harass or defraud the person identified as debtor or for another unlawful purpose.
- (3) Except as provided in Section 70A-9a-513.5, the filing office has no duty to form a belief as to whether a record was caused to be communicated with the intent to harass or defraud the person identified as debtor or for another unlawful purpose and has no duty to investigate or ascertain facts relevant to whether the intent or purpose was present.
- (4) For purposes of Subsection (2):
- (a) a record does not provide information if the filing office is unable to read or decipher the information; and

- (b) a record that does not indicate that it is an amendment or identify an initial financing statement to which it relates, as required by Section 70A-9a-512, 70A-9a-514, or 70A-9a-518, is an initial financing statement.
- (5) A filing office may refuse to accept a record for filing, and if it does so, filing does not occur with respect to the record, because:
 - (a) the debtor is an individual and the debtor's name contains unusually placed and apparently unnecessary punctuation, symbols, or other nonalphabetic characters;
 - (b) the record, in the collateral description or elsewhere, including an attachment, discloses personally identifying information such as a Social Security number, driver license number, identification card number, bank account number, credit or debit card account number, date of birth, or place of birth; or
 - (c) the debtor is an individual and the record indicates that the debtor is a transmitting utility.
- (6) A record that is communicated to the filing office with tender of the filing fee, but which the filing office refuses to accept for a reason other than one set forth in Subsection (2) or (5), is effective as a filed record except as against a purchaser of the collateral which gives value in reasonable reliance upon the absence of the record from the files.
- (7) A record that the filing office, as defined in Section 70A-9a-513.5, initially refuses to accept under Subsection (2)(h) but that it later accepts after it receives additional information is effective as if the filing office had not initially refused to accept the record except as against a purchaser of the collateral that gives value in reasonable reliance upon the absence of the record from the files.

- (4) If a financing statement is filed as a fixture filing or covers as-extracted collateral or timber to be cut, it must be filed for record and the filing office shall index it:
- (a) under the names of the debtor and of each owner of record shown on the financing statement as if they were the mortgagors under a mortgage of the real property described; and
 - (b) to the extent that the law of this state provides for indexing of records of mortgages under the name of the mortgagee, under the name of the secured party as if the secured party were the mortgagee thereunder, or, if indexing is by description, as if the financing statement were a record of a mortgage of the real property described.

70A-9a-615 Application of proceeds of disposition -- Liability for deficiency and right to surplus.

- (1) A secured party shall apply or pay over for application the cash proceeds of disposition under Section 70A-9a-610 in the following order to:
 - (a) the reasonable expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for disposition, processing, and disposing, and, to the extent provided for by agreement and not prohibited by law, reasonable attorney's fees and legal expenses incurred by the secured party;
 - (b) the satisfaction of obligations secured by the security interest or agricultural lien under which the disposition is made;
 - (c) the satisfaction of obligations secured by any subordinate security interest in or other subordinate lien on the collateral if:
 - (i) the secured party receives from the holder of the subordinate security interest or other lien an authenticated demand for proceeds before distribution of the proceeds is completed; and
 - (ii) in a case in which a consignor has an interest in the collateral, the subordinate security interest or other lien is senior to the interest of the consignor; and
 - (d) a secured party that is a consignor of the collateral if the secured party receives from the consignor an authenticated demand for proceeds before distribution of the proceeds is completed.
- (2) If requested by a secured party, a holder of a subordinate security interest or other lien shall furnish reasonable proof of the interest or lien within a reasonable time. Unless the holder does so, the secured party need not comply with the holder's demand under Subsection (1)(c).
- (3) A secured party need not apply or pay over for application noncash proceeds of disposition under Section 70A-9a-610 unless the failure to do so would be commercially unreasonable. A secured party that applies or pays over for application noncash proceeds shall do so in a commercially reasonable manner.
- (4) If the security interest under which a disposition is made secures payment or performance of an obligation, after making the payments and applications required by Subsection (1) and permitted by Subsection (3):

- (a) unless Subsection (1)(d) requires the secured party to apply or pay over cash proceeds to a consignor, the secured party shall account to and pay a debtor for any surplus; and
 - (b) the obligor is liable for any deficiency.
- (5) If the underlying transaction is a sale of accounts, chattel paper, payment intangibles, or promissory notes:
- (a) the debtor is not entitled to any surplus; and
 - (b) the obligor is not liable for any deficiency.
- (6) The surplus or deficiency following a disposition is calculated based on the amount of proceeds that would have been realized in a disposition complying with this part to a transferee other than the secured party, a person related to the secured party, or a secondary obligor if:
- (a) the transferee in the disposition is the secured party, a person related to the secured party, or a secondary obligor; and
 - (b) the amount of proceeds of the disposition is significantly below the range of proceeds that a complying disposition to a person other than the secured party, a person related to the secured party, or a secondary obligor would have brought.
- (7) A secured party that receives cash proceeds of a disposition in good faith and without knowledge that the receipt violates the rights of the holder of a security interest or other lien that is not subordinate to the security interest or agricultural lien under which the disposition is made:
- (a) takes the cash proceeds free of the security interest or other lien;
 - (b) is not obligated to apply the proceeds of the disposition to the satisfaction of obligations secured by the security interest or other lien; and
 - (c) is not obligated to account to or pay the holder of the security interest or other lien for any surplus.

- (1) In this section:
- (a) "Explanation" means a writing that:
 - (i) states the amount of the surplus or deficiency;
 - (ii) provides an explanation in accordance with Subsection (3) of how the secured party calculated the surplus or deficiency;
 - (iii) states, if applicable, that future debits, credits, charges, including additional credit service charges or interest, rebates, and expenses may affect the amount of the surplus or deficiency; and
 - (iv) provides a telephone number or mailing address from which additional information concerning the transaction is available.
 - (b) "Request" means a record:
 - (i) authenticated by a debtor or consumer obligor;
 - (ii) requesting that the recipient provide an explanation; and
 - (iii) sent after disposition of the collateral under Section 70A-9a-610.
- (2) In a consumer-goods transaction in which the debtor is entitled to a surplus or a consumer obligor is liable for a deficiency under Section 70A-9a-615, the secured party shall:
- (a) send an explanation to the debtor or consumer obligor, as applicable, after the disposition and:

- (i) before or when the secured party accounts to the debtor and pays any surplus or first makes written demand on the consumer obligor after the disposition for payment of the deficiency; and
 - (ii) within 14 days after receipt of a request; or
 - (b) in the case of a consumer obligor who is liable for a deficiency, within 14 days after receipt of a request, send to the consumer obligor a record waiving the secured party's right to a deficiency.
- (3) To comply with Subsection (1)(a)(ii), a writing must provide the following information in the following order:
- (a) the aggregate amount of obligations secured by the security interest under which the disposition was made, and, if the amount reflects a rebate of unearned interest or credit service charge, an indication of that fact, calculated as of a specified date:
 - (i) if the secured party takes or receives possession of the collateral after default, not more than 35 days before the secured party takes or receives possession; or
 - (ii) if the secured party takes or receives possession of the collateral before default or does not take possession of the collateral, not more than 35 days before the disposition;
 - (b) the amount of proceeds of the disposition;
 - (c) the aggregate amount of the obligations after deducting the amount of proceeds;
 - (d) the amount, in the aggregate or by type, and types of expenses, including expenses of retaking, holding, preparing for disposition, processing, and disposing of the collateral, and attorney's fees secured by the collateral which are known to the secured party and relate to the current disposition;
 - (e) the amount, in the aggregate or by type, and types of credits, including rebates of interest or credit service charges, to which the obligor is known to be entitled and which are not reflected in the amount in Subsection (3)(a); and
 - (f) the amount of the surplus or deficiency.
- (4) A particular phrasing of the explanation is not required. An explanation complying substantially with the requirements of Subsection (1) is sufficient, even if it includes minor errors that are not seriously misleading.
- (5) A debtor or consumer obligor is entitled without charge to one response to a request under this section during any six-month period in which the secured party did not send to the debtor or consumer obligor an explanation pursuant to Subsection (2)(a). The secured party may require payment of a charge not exceeding $25 for each additional response.

 - (a) transfers to a transferee for value all of the debtor's rights in the collateral;
 - (b) discharges the security interest under which the disposition is made; and
 - (c) discharges any subordinate security interest or other subordinate lien.
- (2) A transferee that acts in good faith takes free of the rights and interests described in Subsection (1), even if the secured party fails to comply with this chapter or the requirements of any judicial proceeding.
- (3) If a transferee does not take free of the rights and interests described in Subsection (1), the transferee takes the collateral subject to:
 - (a) the debtor's rights in the collateral;
 - (b) the security interest or agricultural lien under which the disposition is made; and

- (c) any other security interest or other lien.

- (1) A secondary obligor acquires the rights and becomes obligated to perform the duties of the secured party after the secondary obligor:
 - (a) receives an assignment of a secured obligation from the secured party;
 - (b) receives a transfer of collateral from the secured party and agrees to accept the rights and assume the duties of the secured party; or
 - (c) is subrogated to the rights of a secured party with respect to collateral.
- (2) An assignment, transfer, or subrogation described in Subsection (1):
 - (a) is not a disposition of collateral under Section 70A-9a-610; and
 - (b) relieves the secured party of further duties under this chapter.

Enacted by Chapter 252, 2000 General Session

70A-9a-619 Transfer of record or legal title.

- (1) In this section, "transfer statement" means a record authenticated by a secured party stating:
 - (a) that the debtor has defaulted in connection with an obligation secured by specified collateral;
 - (b) that the secured party has exercised its post-default remedies with respect to the collateral;
 - (c) that, by reason of the exercise, a transferee has acquired the rights of the debtor in the collateral; and
 - (d) the name and mailing address of the secured party, debtor, and transferee.
- (2) A transfer statement entitles the transferee to the transfer of record of all rights of the debtor in the collateral specified in the statement in any official filing, recording, registration, or certificate-of-title system covering the collateral. If a transfer statement is presented with the applicable fee and request form to the official or office responsible for maintaining the system, the official or office shall:
 - (a) accept the transfer statement;
 - (b) promptly amend its records to reflect the transfer; and
 - (c) if applicable, issue a new appropriate certificate of title in the name of the transferee.
- (3) A transfer of the record or legal title to collateral to a secured party under Subsection (2) or otherwise is not of itself a disposition of collateral under this chapter and does not of itself relieve the secured party of its duties under this chapter.

- (ii) any other person, other than the debtor, holding an interest in the collateral subordinate to the security interest that is the subject of the proposal;
 - (c) if the collateral is consumer goods, the collateral is not in the possession of the debtor when the debtor consents to the acceptance; and

 - (b) the conditions of Subsection (1) are met.
- (3) For purposes of this section:
 - (a) a debtor consents to an acceptance of collateral in partial satisfaction of the obligation it secures only if the debtor agrees to the terms of the acceptance in a record authenticated after default; and
 - (b) a debtor consents to an acceptance of collateral in full satisfaction of the obligation it secures only if the debtor agrees to the terms of the acceptance in a record authenticated after default or the secured party:
 - (i) sends to the debtor after default a proposal that is unconditional or subject only to a condition that collateral not in the possession of the secured party be preserved or maintained;
 - (ii) in the proposal, proposes to accept collateral in full satisfaction of the obligation it secures; and

 - (a) 60% of the cash price has been paid in the case of a purchase-money security interest in consumer goods; or
 - (b) 60% of the principal amount of the obligation secured has been paid in the case of a non-purchase-money security interest in consumer goods.
- (6) To comply with Subsection (5), the secured party shall dispose of the collateral:

 - (b) has disposed of collateral or entered into a contract for its disposition under Section 70A-9a-610; or
 - (c) has accepted collateral in full or partial satisfaction of the obligation it secures under Section 70A-9a-622.

70A-9a-625 Remedies for secured party's failure to comply with chapter.

- (1) If it is established that a secured party is not proceeding in accordance with this chapter, a court may order or restrain collection, enforcement, or disposition of collateral on appropriate terms and conditions.
- (2) Subject to Subsections (3), (4), and (5), a person is liable for damages in the amount of any loss caused by a failure to comply with this chapter. Loss caused by a failure to comply may include loss resulting from the debtor's inability to obtain, or increased costs of, alternative financing.
- (3) Except as otherwise provided in Section 70A-9a-628:
 - (a) a person that, at the time of the failure, was a debtor, was an obligor, or held a security interest in or other lien on the collateral may recover damages under Subsection (2) for its loss; and
 - (b) if the collateral is consumer goods, a person that was a debtor or a secondary obligor at the time a secured party failed to comply with this part may recover for that failure in any event an amount not less than the credit service charge plus 10% of the principal amount of the obligation or the time-price differential plus 10% of the cash price.
- (4) A debtor whose deficiency is eliminated under Section 70A-9a-626 may recover damages for the loss of any surplus. However, a debtor or secondary obligor whose deficiency is eliminated or reduced under Section 70A-9a-626 may not otherwise recover under Subsection (2) for noncompliance with the provisions of this part relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance.
- (5) In addition to any damages recoverable under Subsection (2), the debtor, consumer obligor, or person named as a debtor in a filed record, as applicable, may recover $500 in each case from a person that:
 - (a) fails to comply with Section 70A-9a-208;
 - (b) fails to comply with Section 70A-9a-209;
 - (c) files a record that the person is not entitled to file under Subsection 70A-9a-509(1);
 - (d) fails to cause the secured party of record to file or send a termination statement as required by Subsection 70A-9a-513(1) or (3);
 - (e) fails to comply with Subsection 70A-9a-616(2)(a) and whose failure is part of a pattern, or consistent with a practice, of noncompliance; or
 - (f) fails to comply with Subsection 70A-9a-616(2)(b).
- (6) A debtor or consumer obligor may recover damages under Subsection (2) and, in addition, $500 in each case from a person that, without reasonable cause, fails to comply with a request under Section 70A-9a-210. A recipient of a request under Section 70A-9a-210 which never claimed an interest in the collateral or obligations that are the subject of a request under that section has a reasonable excuse for failure to comply with the request within the meaning of this Subsection (6).

- (7) If a secured party fails to comply with a request regarding a list of collateral or a statement of account under Section 70A-9a-210, the secured party may claim a security interest only as shown in the list or statement included in the request as against a person that is reasonably misled by the failure.

Enacted by Chapter 252, 2000 General Session

70A-9a-626 Action in which deficiency or surplus is in issue.

- (1) In an action arising from a transaction, other than a consumer transaction, in which the amount of a deficiency or surplus is in issue, the following rules apply:
- (a) A secured party need not prove compliance with the provisions of this part relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance unless the debtor or a secondary obligor places the secured party's compliance in issue.
 - (b) If the secured party's compliance is placed in issue, the secured party has the burden of establishing that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance was conducted in accordance with this part.
 - (c) Except as otherwise provided in Section 70A-9a-628, if a secured party fails to prove that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance was conducted in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance, the liability of a debtor or a secondary obligor for a deficiency is limited to an amount by which the sum of the secured obligation, expenses, and attorney's fees exceeds the greater of:
 - (i) the proceeds of the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance; or
 - (ii) the amount of proceeds that would have been realized had the noncomplying secured party proceeded in accordance with the provisions of this part relating to collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance.
 - (d) For purposes of Subsection (1)(c)(ii), the amount of proceeds that would have been realized is equal to the sum of the secured obligation, expenses, and attorney's fees unless the secured party proves that the amount is less than that sum.
 - (e) If a deficiency or surplus is calculated under Subsection 70A-9a-615(6), the debtor or obligor has the burden of establishing that the amount of proceeds of the disposition is significantly below the range of prices that a complying disposition to a person other than the secured party, a person related to the secured party, or a secondary obligor would have brought.
- (2) The limitation of the rules in Subsection (1) to transactions other than consumer transactions is intended to leave to the court the determination of the proper rules in consumer transactions. The court may not infer from that limitation the nature of the proper rule in consumer transactions and may continue to apply established approaches.

Enacted by Chapter 252, 2000 General Session

70A-9a-627 Determination of whether conduct was commercially reasonable.

- (1) The fact that a greater amount could have been obtained by a collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance at a different time or in a different method from that selected by the secured party is not of itself sufficient to preclude the secured party from establishing that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance was made in a commercially reasonable manner.

- (2) A disposition of collateral is made in a commercially reasonable manner if the disposition is made:
 - (a) in the usual manner on any recognized market;
 - (b) at the price current in any recognized market at the time of the disposition; or
 - (c) otherwise in conformity with reasonable commercial practices among dealers in the type of property that was the subject of the disposition.
- (3) A collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance is commercially reasonable if it has been approved:
 - (a) in a judicial proceeding;
 - (b) by a bona fide creditors' committee;
 - (c) by a representative of creditors; or
 - (d) by an assignee for the benefit of creditors.
- (4) Approval under Subsection (3) need not be obtained, and lack of approval does not mean that the collection, enforcement, disposition, or acceptance is not commercially reasonable.

Enacted by Chapter 252, 2000 General Session

70A-9a-628 Nonliability and limitation on liability of secured party -- Liability of secondary obligor.

- (1) Unless a secured party knows that a person is a debtor or obligor, knows the identity of the person, and knows how to communicate with the person:
 - (a) the secured party is not liable to the person, or to a secured party or lienholder that has filed a financing statement against the person, for failure to comply with this chapter; and
 - (b) the secured party's failure to comply with this chapter does not affect the liability of the person for a deficiency.
- (2) A secured party is not liable because of its status as secured party:
 - (a) to a person that is a debtor or obligor, unless the secured party knows:
 - (i) that the person is a debtor or obligor;
 - (ii) the identity of the person; and
 - (iii) how to communicate with the person; or
 - (b) to a secured party or lienholder that has filed a financing statement against a person, unless the secured party knows:
 - (i) that the person is a debtor; and
 - (ii) the identity of the person.
- (3) A secured party is not liable to any person, and a person's liability for a deficiency is not affected, because of any act or omission arising out of the secured party's reasonable belief that a transaction is not a consumer-goods transaction or a consumer transaction or that goods are not consumer goods, if the secured party's belief is based on its reasonable reliance on:
 - (a) a debtor's representation concerning the purpose for which collateral was to be used, acquired, or held; or
 - (b) an obligor's representation concerning the purpose for which a secured obligation was incurred.
- (4) A secured party is not liable to any person under Subsection 70A-9a-625(3)(b) for its failure to comply with Section 70A-9a-616.
- (5) A secured party is not liable under Section 70A-9a-625(3)(b) more than once with respect to any one secured obligation.

Part 7 Transition

70A-9a-701 Effective date -- Terminology.

- (1) This act takes effect on July 1, 2001.
- (2) References in this part to "former Chapter 9" are to Chapter 9, Secured Transactions - Sales of Accounts, Contract Rights and Chattel Paper, as in effect on June 30, 2001.

Enacted by Chapter 252, 2000 General Session

70A-9a-702 Savings clause.

- (1) Except as otherwise provided in this part, this act applies to a transaction or lien within its scope, even if the transaction or lien was entered into or created before this act takes effect.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in Subsection (3) and Sections 70A-9a-703 through 70A-9a-709:
 - (a) transactions and liens that were not governed by former Chapter 9, Secured Transactions - Sales of Accounts, Contract Rights and Chattel Paper, were validly entered into or created before this act takes effect, and would be subject to this act if they had been entered into or created after this act takes effect, and the rights, duties, and interests flowing from those transactions and liens remain valid after this act takes effect; and
 - (b) the transactions and liens may be terminated, completed, consummated, and enforced as required or permitted by this act or by the law that otherwise would apply if this act had not taken effect.
- (3) This act does not affect an action, case, or proceeding commenced before this act takes effect.

Enacted by Chapter 252, 2000 General Session

70A-9a-703 Security interest perfected before effective date.

- (1) A security interest that is enforceable immediately before this act takes effect and would have priority over the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor at that time is a perfected security interest under this act if, when this act takes effect, the applicable requirements for enforceability and perfection under this act are satisfied without further action.
- (2) Except as otherwise provided in Section 70A-9a-705, if, immediately before this act takes effect, a security interest is enforceable and would have priority over the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor at that time, but the applicable requirements for enforceability or perfection under this act are not satisfied when this act takes effect, the security interest:
 - (a) is a perfected security interest for one year after this act takes effect;
 - (b) remains enforceable thereafter only if the security interest becomes enforceable under Section 70A-9a-203 before the year expires; and
 - (c) remains perfected thereafter only if the applicable requirements for perfection under this act are satisfied before the year expires.

Enacted by Chapter 252, 2000 General Session

70A-9a-704 Security interest unperfected before effective date.

A security interest that is enforceable immediately before this act takes effect but which would be subordinate to the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor at that time:

- (1) remains an enforceable security interest for one year after this act takes effect;
- (2) remains enforceable thereafter if the security interest becomes enforceable under Section 70A-9a-203 when this act takes effect or within one year thereafter; and
- (3) becomes perfected:
 - (a) without further action, when this act takes effect if the applicable requirements for perfection under this act are satisfied before or at that time; or
 - (b) when the applicable requirements for perfection are satisfied if the requirements are satisfied after that time.

Enacted by Chapter 252, 2000 General Session

70A-9a-705 Effectiveness of action taken before effective date.

- (1) If action, other than the filing of a financing statement, is taken before this act takes effect and the action would have resulted in priority of a security interest over the rights of a person that becomes a lien creditor had the security interest become enforceable before this act takes effect, the action is effective to perfect a security interest that attaches under this act within one year after this act takes effect. An attached security interest becomes unperfected one year after this act takes effect unless the security interest becomes a perfected security interest under this act before the expiration of that period.
- (2) The filing of a financing statement before this act takes effect is effective to perfect a security interest to the extent the filing would satisfy the applicable requirements for perfection under this act.
- (3) This act does not render ineffective an effective financing statement that, before this act takes effect, is filed and satisfies the applicable requirements for perfection under the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in former Section 70A-9-103. However, except as otherwise provided in Subsections (4) and (5) and Section 70A-9a-706, the financing statement ceases to be effective at the earlier of:
 - (a) the time the financing statement would have ceased to be effective under the law of the jurisdiction in which it is filed; or
 - (b) June 30, 2006.
- (4) The filing of a continuation statement after this act takes effect does not continue the effectiveness of the financing statement filed before this act takes effect. However, upon the timely filing of a continuation statement after this act takes effect and in accordance with the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in Part 3, Perfection and Priority, the effectiveness of a financing statement filed in the same office in that jurisdiction before this act takes effect continues for the period provided by the law of that jurisdiction.
- (5) Subsection (3)(b) applies to a financing statement that, before this act takes effect, is filed against a transmitting utility and satisfies the applicable requirements for perfection under the law of the jurisdiction governing perfection as provided in former Section 70A-9-103 only to the extent that Part 3, Perfection and Priority, provides that the law of a jurisdiction other than the jurisdiction in which the financing statement is filed governs perfection of a security interest in collateral covered by the financing statement.
- (6) A financing statement that includes a financing statement filed before this act takes effect and a continuation statement filed after this act takes effect is effective only to the extent that it satisfies the requirements of Part 5, Filing, for an initial financing statement.

Enacted by Chapter 252, 2000 General Session

70A-9a-706 When initial financing statement suffices to continue effectiveness of financing statement.

- (1) The filing of an initial financing statement in the office specified in Section 70A-9a-501 continues the effectiveness of a financing statement filed before this act takes effect if:
 - (a) the filing of an initial financing statement in that office would be effective to perfect a security interest under this act;
 - (b) the pre-effective-date financing statement was filed in an office in another state or another office in this state; and
 - (c) the initial financing statement satisfies Subsection (3).

- (1) This act determines the priority of conflicting claims to collateral. However, if the relative priorities of the claims were established before this act takes effect, former Chapter 9, Secured Transactions - Sales of Accounts, Contract Rights and Chattel Paper, determines priority.
- (2) For purposes of Subsection 70A-9a-322(1), the priority of a security interest that becomes enforceable under Section 70A-9a-203 of this act dates from the time this act takes effect if the security interest is perfected under this act by the filing of a financing statement before this act takes effect which would not have been effective to perfect the security interest under former Chapter 9, Secured Transactions - Sales of Accounts, Contract Rights and Chattel Paper. This Subsection (2) does not apply to conflicting security interests each of which is perfected by the filing of such a financing statement.
