

72-6-104 Highways to conform to grade and direction in municipalities.

Except for the highways part of the interstate system, a highway that extends through a municipality shall conform to the direction and grade of other streets in the municipality unless permission is obtained from the highway authorities of the municipality for a variance in the direction and grade.

Renumbered and Amended by Chapter 270, 1998 General Session