

75-2-602 Will construed to pass all property and after-acquired property.

A will is construed to pass all property the testator owns at death and all property acquired by the estate after the testator's death.

Repealed and Re-enacted by Chapter 39, 1998 General Session