

75-5-419 Accounts.

- (1) Every conservator must account to the court for the administration of the estate upon resignation or removal and at any other times the court may direct.
- (2) On termination of the protected person's minority or disability, a conservator may account to the court, the former protected person, or the personal representative of the protected person.
- (3) Subject to appeal or vacation within the time permitted, an order, made upon notice and hearing, allowing an intermediate account of a conservator, adjudicates as to any liabilities concerning the matters considered in connection with the protected person's account, and an order, made upon notice and hearing, allowing a final account adjudicates as to all previously unsettled liabilities of the conservator to the protected person or the protected person's successors relating to the conservatorship.
- (4) In connection with any account, the court may require a conservator to submit to a physical check of the estate in the conservator's control, to be made in any manner the court may specify.
