

77-32a-12 Collection of payment in default -- Execution.

A default in the payment of costs or any installment thereof may be collected by any means authorized by law for the enforcement of a judgment. The levy of execution for the collection of costs shall not discharge a defendant committed to imprisonment for contempt until the amount of the costs has actually been collected.

Enacted by Chapter 15, 1980 General Session