

Effective 5/13/2014

77-38-15 Civil action against human traffickers and human smugglers.

- (1) A victim of a person that commits the offense of human trafficking or human smuggling under Section 76-5-308, or aggravated human trafficking or aggravated human smuggling under Section 76-5-310, may bring a civil action against that person.
- (2)
  - (a) The court may award actual damages, compensatory damages, punitive damages, injunctive relief, or any other appropriate relief.
  - (b) The court may award treble damages on proof of actual damages if the court finds that the person's acts were willful and malicious.
- (3) In an action under this section, the court shall award a prevailing victim reasonable attorney fees and costs.
- (4) An action under this section shall be commenced no later than 10 years after the later of:
  - (a) the day on which the victim was freed from the human trafficking or human smuggling situation;
  - (b) the day on which the victim attains 18 years of age; or
  - (c) if the victim was unable to bring an action due to a disability, the day on which the victim's disability ends.
- (5) The time period described in Subsection (4) is tolled during a period of time when the victim fails to bring an action due to the person:
  - (a) inducing the victim to delay filing the action;
  - (b) preventing the victim from filing the action; or
  - (c) threatening and causing duress upon the victim in order to prevent the victim from filing the action.
- (6) The court shall offset damages awarded to the victim under this section by any restitution paid to the victim under Title 77, Chapter 38a, Crime Victims Restitution Act.
- (7) A victim may bring an action described in this section in any court of competent jurisdiction where:
  - (a) a violation described in Subsection (1) occurred;
  - (b) the victim resides; or
  - (c) the person that commits the offense resides or has a place of business.
- (8) If the victim is deceased or otherwise unable to represent the victim's own interests in court, a legal guardian, family member, representative of the victim, or court appointee may bring an action under this section on behalf of the victim.
- (9) This section does not preclude any other remedy available to the victim under the laws of this state or under federal law.
